actually you see that the kids that are saying that have traded with you, after the fact... making them just as bad as you... ALL of the proof is there on the thread that you yourself are telling him to look at.

lean yung - December 27, 2015, 10:35 pm

Like I said I'm still willing to buy gold I'm plenty trusted. Hit me up if you want to get this sold otherwise that report is starting to seem a lot more convincing.

Snapple Tea - December 28, 2015, 11:25 am

Bogla already offered to buy it all. Why not sell to a trusted gold trader?

Deal with caution. User seems very suspicious.

Bogla expects me to go first, which I stated in my thread I wouldn't.

Don't have to go throwing false information with no explanation bud.

Your not going first, so find a MM.

Not sure how someone not going first to you rules them out of a deal.

This smells so fishy.

You have 1500$ worth of gold, but you won't pay the 5$ MM fee (even though majority are FREE).

Looks like your just trying to coerce someone into going first to you.

Also has an open deal dispute for RSGP

More than willing to use a middleman like stated, I haven't turned one down.

Also if you'd even be bothered to read thread/rep he tried to frame me.

Again if you're posting irrelevance please vacate.

Thanks.

Alerting users of your open dispute is very relevant.

Which is fine, aslong as you state accurate facts about it instead of using it as slander.

Mr. Supreme - December 29, 2015, 2:05 pm

The fact that you won't go first to bogla already makes me suspicious Imfao Bogla is much much much more trusted than you will ever be. You're sketchy as fuck for not accepting that.

Xepher The Cat - December 29, 2015, 2:39 pm

Willing to MM for you guys and do in increments.

Confound - December 30, 2015, 2:39 pm

careful what you say... you might get neg repped by people he's given good deal to do so lol.

DeXuM - December 31, 2015, 5:51 pm

bogla is one of the most trusted gold selling/buying websites known. if you refused to go first for bogla then you sir, are a sketchy user. EDIT: A very trusted colleague of mine informed me tsm sold him 300m legit.. tsm went first.. i see no reason he should have scammed you dami.

pretty obvious you cheat engined your gold considering how much emphasis you put on examining your gold.

oh but hes no longer claiming i scammed him he changed his claim to now im framing him... if any mod took the time to look into any of the shit hes typed and edited then that enough would justify a ban

NoSuchAgency - December 31, 2015, 7:58 pm

Lol I wouldn't deal with you if you were selling 1.5b for 100 dollars. Sketchy as fuck user.
