Thread: How do I grow my Facebook page? // Make people like my page?

Internet Explorer. - December 27, 2015, 2:17 pm

I have used 8$ on Facebook ads (which is cool, good results), and spent time uploading pictures for the last 4 days.

However, I only have 43 likes as of now.

My goal would've been around 150 now, but yeah.. shit's hard.

So yeah, I'm looking for tips to grow it.

Here's a link:

EDIT: Wrong subforum, sorry!

You, and you.

I like you.

Comment on other pages like 9Gag, make some funny comments, get them to be a top comment > People will check your page out

If you need some fake likes for free hmu

Marshelo - December 27, 2015, 2:26 pm

You should do captions like "Tag your friends who does this" or "Share/Like if you agree" or something like that it should get your page pretty viral :)

I cant even find your page comment.

I think what he is trying to say that when some posts picture you should quickly post a meme in a comment and drive traffic to your page, its useless to post on it if you have 0 likes on comments

Yeah, I know - but I see that puns usually work the best.

PoisonDrt - December 27, 2015, 2:52 pm

Just keep posting stuff and people who find it funny/like it will come automatic. It might take months or maybe year, but you will grow if you post alot

Here is an advice. Create some videos. Be a unique guy with a unique idea like teaching something or if it is related to fun then create videos about it. Your page will cross more than million fans. I guarantee

Example: <https://www.facebook.com/DaYoutubeGuy>

Content is king on FB meaning you need quality content. I see you're just starting a page so you should keep advertising on Facebook or elsewhere until you reach a good amount of likes, then you will have enough likes to run the page without advertising.

.Defend - December 28, 2015, 5:18 am

No one really uses Facebook... It's not Hot anymore.

iToady - December 28, 2015, 5:20 am

Just post good content, trust me the traffic will come.

Briceag - December 28, 2015, 6:00 am

I'll go with the unique videos thing, just like others said..

I also post a lot of original funny pictures, but throughout the year i only grew to 3300 likes. And my friends, who made a shitty animation with their voiceover grew to 20,000 in a few weeks. I can make a waaaaa better animation and graphic, but there's no way i'd see my ogre voice in a video..

Hellblazer? - December 28, 2015, 6:03 am

Like the others said maybe try to get top comment on TheLadBible or something like that and you might get traffic that way.

I liked your page btw.

Constantly trying, but it's so fucking hard.

Isn't it just posting memes / puns etc. related to the original post?

dominic0719 - December 28, 2015, 8:21 am

I used add more and more friends and liked their posts and pics , in return they too liked mine ?

You don't nothing wrong, but start adding hashtags, this can boost you a little. Post content where people needs to be active and share or add ppl, some sort of "mark someone who needs to see it" or "mark someone who is like this"

PS. Fck me, didn't looked at date....
