I am upgrading members not because I feel like spending/donating money. I am upgrading members just because I know there are a lot of people who deserve to be upgraded but they can't afford the cost of up-gradation. I will be picking members from this thread and will select the deserving one after due diligence. My whole idea of hosting this contest will go for a toss if I offer an award as a replacement. I hope you'll understand. ?

I would very much like to get more engaged in the community and I feel restricted because of the PMs filling up my inbox, so that is the main reason why I wish to become l33t, second reason would be to look more trustworthy in means of my upcoming services, I may try to code more software and give it away(I like opensource) and to be able to do that I need members to trust me and I feel I would trust a L33t member more than a normal members and therfor I would love to become upgraded in this giveaway/contest.

Thanks in advance, have a great day.

Disparity - January 9, 2016, 12:05 am

Hello there, my name is Disparity. I joined around a year ago in hopes of improving my Website Hacking skillset. But damn, I've done so much more than learn. The second I got on here and started reading through sections I got the urge to help spread my knowledge (though that knowledge really isn't all that much), and so far I've done more of that than I have learned. I've posted many posts doing such in the Website Hacking section, and I've enjoyed it all. Along the way I managed to land myself a spot in Elusive, and now in a newer group called Insight but I have yet to really experience what they're about. However, I've done a little more than get into groups and talk about website hacking. As I mentioned earlier I learned I love teaching and helping. So, since I joined I've been producing guides and services to help people out in any way I can afford to. I've compiled a list of these things below.

Free Signature Service

Large Guide on learning to Hack in general

Guide on setting up DVWA

Link-clicking thread

Wore signatures for a week

I plan on contributing much more in the future, and I'm even currently working on a massive XSS guide.

I truly enjoy my time on here, and L33T would make my time that much better, whether it's allowing me to post in the sections I've longed to post in since I signed up (SRPP) or have more inbox space, it would just be so incredible to have it.

Thank you so, so much, and congratulations to whoever you pick.

Have a great evening.

Not going to select random people. Last time when I did, a multi got selected. He is closed for now and the money I spent in upgrading him got wasted.

Hence, decided to select winners on various parameters. Such as quality of posts, trust scan, quality of tutorials (if any), account age, (+/-) reps etc.

Since it is a big contest with over 55 upgrades....I will make sure that I select people who really deserve to be upgraded.

That's what my plan is. Upgrading HQ members who can't afford an upgrade. No point in upgrading someone who is LQ or someone who can actually afford an upgrade.

It's not just another regular contest my friend. I screen user profiles basis of certain criteria that I have set. I then shortlist profiles that qualify and make a draw to pick the lucky one. My contest is all about giving upgrades to 'Deserving' members not to select random people for free upgrades. Hence, giving something in exchange of an upgrade is out of question.

Thanks for posting and I hope you wish good luck to every other user on this thread.

Yes no rules whatsoever about making a post. No signature or anything.

But the winners are not chosen randomly. So it's not luck. I screen profiles of people who post on my thread, deserving profiles receive an upgrade when picked as winner.

Well I had mentioned it in one of the posts that I will be upgrading 4 members in last week of 2016.

52+ 3 additional members = 55 members.

I hope this answer helps you to ascertain that I am not dumb. ?

Reason I should get promoted is because I'm a dedicated and loyal member and I only stick to one forum. To be honest this is the only forum I spent so much time on and I don't regret it a single bit. I'm not sure how old my account is, but ever since I registered on this forum I made around $700~ and there's more to come.

Also love to help other people with my knowledge. Not to brag but to help them become better in that what they need help for.

Photoshop manipulations (add finger, tattoo, name on body/paper, enlarge tits), and a short mentoring service. A lot of people ask money for the smallest things and I find that too stupid for words. Of course I won't leak my methods or other paid methods cause hey, I gotta earn money too. Helping others and seeing progress in their ways of doing is something I always loved.

Other than e-whorin I'm also into medical and photography threads but that's because those 2 topics have a big impact on my life.

Of course, the highest update possible would be the best, but any update would do for that matter ^^

Entering the giveaway, assuming its still going!

_____ - April 30, 2016, 10:20 pm

I am entering this contest too! I hope myself lucky enough!

I want to upgrade to L33T or UB3R, due to many reasons. I am pretty unfortunate as I am not able to save all my PMs, even though I love them, due to less space given. If I get upgraded, I might be able to have all those nice mesaages, because I don't want to lose them, but I have to delete them every now and then to receive new PMs. I am also not able to save a copy of all the PMs I currently send! I want to win because I love HF, but don't have enough money to upgrade and neg all those spammers on this forum! I want to make this forum proud of making me a member, and henceforth, I want to win! Thank you, Brahma™, for this giveaway!

Entering and trying to win L33T, if that's possible.
Even though I most likely won't win it :/

SysAdmin - May 2, 2016, 10:33 am

A few people already wanted to buy me Ub3r, but i thought i wasn't worth of it, even though i have a high enough number of green apples. I have been accepted for Ub3r when i was a teeny bit boy with about 500 posts. Since i cannot afford it at the moment (and i probably won't for a while), i'd really like to win this week. Good luck to everyone else in this competition! Thanks :)

ParadiseDealz - May 2, 2016, 5:53 pm

I'm still not sure if I can apply, but if I can, can I have HF l33t.

Howl - May 12, 2016, 7:32 am

You're awesome for doing this!

I'm entering in for UB3R.

Thanks a ton!

STYLING - May 12, 2016, 7:53 am

Posting to enter man, would mean the world if I can get an upgrade after all this time being normal, cheers!

To clarify; If you've posted before (say between post numbers 100-150, and the winner was for example 150, can you post again after the 150th post)

Ok if I understood correctly I should only post once, which I did. Please do not consider this post as an entry, I'll have it deleted.

Elliot.Alderson - May 12, 2016, 7:59 am

Thanks KOH for letting me open this thread once again.

Apologies to HF for not taking care of this contest for a while due to the reason that I got busy IRL. By next week I will pick all the pending winners and will pick 2 extra winners as compensation for abandoning the contest for a couple of months.

The longest running contest on HF will continue henceforth and it will last till the end of this year.

Post to enter if in case you have not done it yet. Good luck everyone !!

Cheers !!
