Thread: Can you lie to someone face to face?

bfreakz - December 29, 2015, 10:44 pm

So one thing I was wondering about. Can you guys lie to others whilst speaking face to face? I personally cant keep a straight face while lying, always end up bursting in laughter. Not quite sure if this will do me good or not lol.

Coton Pker - December 29, 2015, 10:48 pm

it depends on the content and context.

usually if you speak with enough confidence, you can get people to believe anything.

but sometimes it's so outrageous that it's hard to keep composure.

broozeb - December 29, 2015, 10:51 pm

The greatest of lies do not always require that the one, from which they are being delivered, maintains a straight face, nor do the most deceitful of persons maintain such outward apathy; rather do they maintain affability, and good humor, to lure their victims into a sense of security and trust.

I just referred him to the forum, he's good.

emadaldin1 - December 29, 2015, 10:59 pm

Well I can lie easily

but there are types of lies

there are innocent lies that will harm no one and bring you no harm nor much good

like lie to your parents about your studies :D

how was the exam :D

well it was good :D even through it was hard but telling the truth would only lead me into getting investigated by my parents so there small lies that I can say but I hate that kind of lying that can harm other people example when I got my money stolen and the guy lied about me giving him any money that hurt me like hell
not the money lost
but the lie that can hurt you so bad

Corruptedman - December 29, 2015, 11:05 pm

I can lie face to face for sure. Why do you ask?

x2NaTe2x - December 29, 2015, 11:06 pm

I can't do it. I suck at lying face to face.

Coldj - December 29, 2015, 11:48 pm

If it's a joke then no, I'll probably be dying of laughter, but once you get use to lying you lie naturally even when you don't realize it

B?ue - December 29, 2015, 11:50 pm

I've done it so much I'm quite good at it.

I did acting as well and one of the main focuses in acting is making sure you don't laugh or even smile a bit so that kinda helped me out when it comes to lying.

?Genghis Khan? - December 29, 2015, 11:59 pm

I usually can really well, but in a sense it depends on what context it is in

Freed0m36 - December 30, 2015, 12:27 am

What I'm good at is reverse psychology (I think that's what its called)...

When you tell the truth in a way to make the person think your lying.

It might sound easy and useless, but if you use it well, its very useful.

freshpr1nce - December 30, 2015, 12:29 am

I can do it, you need to learn to believe in your own lies then its easy peasy.

Vitani's Mate - December 30, 2015, 12:34 am

Sometimes I can do it and sometimes I can't do it. :D

ogRizah - December 30, 2015, 12:48 am

It's difficult for me to lie to someone directly to there face. I would say it's easy for me to casually white lie, or make a joke without the other knowing. The difference between what's the truth and what's not, never really matters as much as it does.

Wireless Network - December 30, 2015, 1:34 am

Hell yeah, but i feel bad about it then i tell truth.

It's like: I just proved you i can lie to you.

woahxx - December 30, 2015, 1:35 am

My friend (ex-friend) oops, once asked his mom if we had sex - since I convinced him we had, and it was even on 1st of April. Yes, he is dumb.

I can't. If I try to lie in-statement I laugh, and if I try to lie in-resposne I get overly defensive. That's why I can only play poker online.

rapidfire08 - December 30, 2015, 1:42 am

Yea I was able to do that until I was 17 but then I realised it was really hampering my personality and becoming into a habit so I got rid of it as soon as I could. It's not good.

blocknode - December 30, 2015, 1:44 am

I'm trained at that shit for sure. Used to lie alot to my parents for usage of weed :/

Kadian. - December 30, 2015, 2:14 am

Im pretty good at lying,but I feel the bad karma is taking me over :(

Zelix - December 30, 2015, 2:18 am

It depends, if I really have to lie to avoid any problems or something, OH HELL YEAH.

I can even make people believe I didn't fuck their sister

Omoi - December 30, 2015, 2:20 am

See lying to people is easy and police however comes to teachers back in school I couldn't help my self but laugh.

Quote for future reference.?

?MIN?M - December 30, 2015, 2:48 am

I probally could. Lieing is for shitheads though, so I don't really need to.

Exceptions: job interviews

I am hod wokker. I showz up on timeeee. me not get arrested for sexual harrassment.

Prophet Banana - December 30, 2015, 2:57 am

Black men do it all the time. Watch Maury or Steve Wilkos.

Calling everyone a liar except for themselves. Even the lie detector test results is a liar.

Renthal - December 30, 2015, 3:05 am

I don't lie because it always tends to backfire.

But a little white lie about if someone looks good or something I will. Unless they look horrible then I'll for sure say what's good.

Call-Me-V - December 30, 2015, 3:18 am

I made a thread back on Wizard forums back in 2012 on the basics of how to tell when someone is lying to you. Seeing this thread reminded me.

If anybody is interested in reading it I posted it in the education section.

Cammy - December 30, 2015, 3:30 am

Easily. I do it almost every day actually.

Consumed - December 30, 2015, 5:34 am

If they are a close friend it is really hard.

To someone I don't know much it is pretty easy

Crory - December 30, 2015, 5:37 am

I can Lie to someones Face but sometimes there are People they know that you are Lieing because of your body language. sometimes if i try to Confuse People with my Lies i also have to Laugh. But it's possible

Regards, ~Crory ?

R2-D2 - December 30, 2015, 5:55 am

I personally never had a problem with lying face to face. Maybe it's because all the experience I earned over the past few years.

Lyrarei - December 30, 2015, 5:56 am

I lie face to face almost everyday. lol.

Aliasllias - December 30, 2015, 5:58 am

I can easily lie in your face, can convince someone I haven't seen their phone while I have it in my hand.

??? -? ? ??? ??? - December 30, 2015, 6:09 am

It's a core ability of Social Engineering, something I really love and even got taught by my parents since their job kinda required it.

It's easy, keep eye contact to appear self-confident, focus on something really serious and forget about the truth or anything relating to it, your lie is the truth now.

If he's unsure about you, get more serious to make your point clear.

Depending on what you're telling the other person, it can help to add a few unnecessary points which appear like a "confession" sorta.

For example (Weird one tho lol): You're trying to tell anybody you just had your first time sex, add the fact that you didn't last long. :P

Shorta - December 30, 2015, 8:48 am

Well, I'm quite good at manipulation so yes of course I can do this.

Smexy - December 30, 2015, 9:07 am

I'm quite a talker so I can good, I can make people believe non supernatural things.

Carpe Diem - December 31, 2015, 6:30 am

I can keep a straight face while telling someone that I fucked his mom last night. Where's my prize?

Fkn - December 31, 2015, 6:37 am

Keeping a straight face isn't everything guys, keeping it concise is much more important when you're lying. Also don't make certain moves with your eyes, mouth, hands etc. and watch the tone of your voice.

Mouse? - December 31, 2015, 6:46 am

Easily, but I wouldn't, because I'm a good boy.

Llama™ - December 31, 2015, 6:49 am

Yes. I can. I can do that easily.

God of Destruction - December 31, 2015, 6:51 am

Lying is easy, an elaborate lie is takes more thought and effort.

Jake Johnson - December 31, 2015, 6:52 am

It depends on the person I would be doing it to but most of the time I can keep a straight face.

Hamware - December 31, 2015, 6:54 am

I find it harder to lie to strangers, than to people I know.

Temp_Rayyy - December 31, 2015, 7:21 am

I can't do it either. I either burst out laughing or my facial expressions clearly show that I'm lying.

?Cyber - January 1, 2016, 8:53 am

Yeah I can, don't really make a habit of it gets harder to keep your story straight after a while.

bfreakz - January 1, 2016, 8:54 am

Makes sense, probably feel more secure as they wouldn't get mad (the people you know).
