Thread: Directing and Starring in POV Porn?

Prophet Banana - January 1, 2016, 11:55 pm

I have decently lit bedroom, and my phone camera ain't so bad. I was thinking of directing and starring in my own pornos. Scoping malls and clubs out for women looking to begin their careers in adult film. I've heard the pay out when giving exclusive rights to your films is quite good.

Sure sounds like a more promising form of entertainment and content creation, sure beats my previous plans to make it as a YouTuber.

I think you should go ahead with it. It'll be a good option as you don't have to show your face on camera, you might just sukceed.

Ya. That's partially the reason I've gone with the POV genre.

If you're going find a way to get your movies funded I don't see why not.

Fairly sure this is the second person in the last few days apparently going into porn, wtf is this trend
o-o

However good luck with it :D
