There were 4 people before me who posted this week and 2 people after me and before you that post today. Shut the fuck up, idiot. Quote the person that dug the grave, dumbass. While you're at it though, try using your brain. A lot of these threads that are still active date back before 2016 and definitely before 2018. Quit trying to flex, faggot.

Quit trying to flex, friend.

not trying to flex at all just using logic. Do you honestly think a person would still be giving free accounts after two years.? If you check his profile the last time he logged in was 2016. Stop bumping useless threads its called gravedigging and a member like you should know this. Im just trying to tell you something an upgraded member on this forum should know and you attack me in this way? Your one of the reasons why people keep responding to this thread.

Blogger - December 9, 2018, 12:06 am

Like I said, there are multiple giveaway threads from years ago that are still active. With that being said, again, I already answered your first question.

Secondly, I'm not checking anyone's profile before posting in their thread. That's just fucking stupid.

Third, like I already said and you clearly didn't understand this point as well, there were four people who bumped this thread before I did so I'm contributing to the bumping just as much as you are. Take your own advice. If not, yes, you're trying to flex and with the wrong person.

The Baller - December 9, 2018, 1:17 pm
