I would like to personally vouch for Prudent.

Long story short:

He worked on a Logo for me and showed me a watermarked sample that I liked.

We agreed to a price and deliverables.

We agreed to BTC

I owed him payment the day HF disallowed CE. So Obviously this is not his fault but I was unable to pay.

We talked today and I got a little snippy with him due to personal issues but we talked about how I was still going to pay I just had issues getting the BTC

He agreed to let it slide and gave me some more time to pay him (given I do not have the deliverables, but a deal is a deal!)

I thank you for your honest business and genuinely enjoy the sample you gave me.

+3 Vouch so so so so so hard for this service.
