If you say 8:30 is early lol.

Got fucked up too fast. Haha.

Last party at my friends house we drank till 6AM on Monday morning. I called in for work. But that was awesome! 12 hours of drinking haha. Sitting outside in front of the garage almost shit faced. Last shot was at 5:59 AM.

Also still feeling my hang over still.... my lungs feel super sore. Not sure if it was from smoking or dry heaving like crazy.

Sounds good mate. It was quieter round my way. A bit of drinking which was nice, and some family tension (not to do with me). Can't wait til I'm 18
