Shouldn't be that bad an idea and venture as you've got plenty of rep to prove your ability to carry out the orders. I don't know about the quality of the juices, though.

I don't trust these huge start up factories making e-juice, nevermind a HF user's.

If you were to get some nice flavoured nicotine free flavours I wouldn't mind buying if they were a decent price.

Is your shit diacetyl free dawg? If so I'll take a vouch juice. I currently have vapors tongue though which means I can barely taste flavor. I can still make a decent review doe. :)

I use liquids that have been thoroughly tested and are deemed safe with no tremendous effects to my health.

This exactly. I wouldn't trust a HF user with my life.
