Mentality*

Read a fucking book. Jamaica is filled with murder, it's a fucking horrible place. I would never go to Jamaica.

"In 2005, Jamaica had 1674 murders for a murder rate of 58 per 100,000 people. That year, Jamaica had the highest murder rate in the world. In November 2008, the Jamaican Parliament voted to retain the death penalty, which is performed by hanging." - Wikipedia, Crime in Jamaica.

So, yeah, I don't think I'd live in that form of shithole.

Yes, they come and stay in built up areas temporarily - do they stay there for permanent residence? No. You know why? raises Jamaican crime statistics.

At no point did I mention race, lol.

My googling skills are irrelevant. The statistics and data is there.

Nice keyboard warrior skills. You live in a murderous shithole, deal with it.

Your retarded claims about how you murder "stupid motherfuckers".

For my own future reference, what is "ads" ? I assume address?

Either way, online threats don't amount to anything and you've only really proven my point even more.

You're not very bright.

I would want to meet up with someone, but how do you avoid the awkwardness factor at times?

Unless you develop a deep online relationship with him before meeting up. Not the romance type.

I see you don't got friends in real life so you come onan online forum to post your insensitive and naive behavior towards users.

My best advice is that you make friends with your lefty.

He's just a troll. Best thing is to ignore him and avoid giving attention.

Ah, yes, said like a true imbecile.

I made a pretty well informed reply and then you told me I had an autistic mentality. I'm sure I'm the one being insensitive. I suggest you go get yourself checked out by a medical professional.

I'm not trolling. All the posts after my initial one, including this one, are kinda trolling but streamline more with the agenda of getting back at OP for making off-hand comments and being a general fool.
