Cimex - January 3, 2016, 12:38 pm

Service discontinued due to a new path I'd like to take on these forums/web.

Thanks to all that used it!

TheUnknownPlague - January 3, 2016, 1:02 pm

vouch for my man cimex i asked for him to dox me he found out more about me then i did and he helped me cover my tracks

Sweetie - January 3, 2016, 3:00 pm

I vouch for Crimex. He found sound very disturbing information of me very quickly. Although, I did purchase a footprint removal here on Hackforums, he was still able to find it.

Bacnezumha The Purger - January 3, 2016, 3:04 pm

So basically this is a doxing service right? What information do you need from the buyer in order to obtain what they are paying for?

It all depends. I can go from an alias online that own an account to try and find information, maybe a Skype account, or an email address... there's loads. I spend a lot of time in the Private Investigation Methods and Anonymity sub-forum, and end up finding information on 90-95% of those who asked to be doxed

And what if a user pays you for this service on someone and you cannot turn up the information requested?

Agonises - January 3, 2016, 3:29 pm

(Jan 3, 2016 04:26 PM)Cimex Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Then the user get's a full refund, or if I find a lot of information, but some missing information then they can either have the information I have, with a little refund (depending what information I have / don't have will depend how much refund they get) You stated 'ISP INFORMATION' in the Elite column. This means you have knowledge regarding ISP doxing? Also you stated 'Full Passwords' does this mean passwords from databases (database entries). And if you're unable to obtain certain parts in each Basic/Advanced/Elite dox. Does the individual pay less?

Bacnezumha The Purger - January 3, 2016, 3:51 pm

Well good luck with sales then, seems like great prices

John F. Kennedy - January 3, 2016, 4:20 pm

I've been offered a vouch copy, and will update when I have the information as advertised. ?

I'll vouch for Cimex, even though I could get this information myself too. This is a good service if you have no idea how to dox.

My only concern is the address he gave me was outdated, but the target I gave him has no public records of his current address. ?

Overall, I'd recommend it if you don't know how to dox yourself.

Cimex - January 3, 2016, 4:38 pm

(Jan 3, 2016 05:35 PM)#DOPE Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Can you do a vouch copy - my brother.

I got the info and shit already but I want to make sure it works because I've got someone who I'm willing to do.

Anyways if your sure you can do it, I've got:

Previous house location

Name

Work place

Sorry all vouch copies have been given out.

Just to note: The vouch copies that are being given out are just a proof of me finding information. I will put a lot more time into paid work, but thanks for the vouches people.

Foreseeable - January 3, 2016, 6:07 pm

Vouch for this user, gave it a good shot, not a bad doxer ;)

Nice job bro.

Neji - January 3, 2016, 6:10 pm

Hey, I was recently scammed and lost the league of legends account I was sold. Is there a possibility that the information that you can provide with the elite pack can help me recover the account?

Thanks so much in advance!

Depending on where the target is from, yes.

You can click the thread to give me more details about the individual.

I just wanted to point out that your advanced package contains both a few social media accounts and all social media accounts as included features, you might want to fix that or make a final decision.

That was simply a design fault, thanks for pointing it out, though.

Been inactive for a few months due to priorities.

I'd presume he'd look at database entries matching emails/lps/aliases or any unique identifier.
