Looking to pay around $100ish.

Please do not contact me if you have never done it or don't have any previous work to show. ?

I believe I know the team of graphic designers that made this, if not, I know someone very similar. If you're looking for something just as same quality, I'd recommend you contact them. However the logo would most likely cost upwards of $150.

I know a guy who made it, but he can't work for a couple of weeks and that doesn't really work for me.

He charged $75-$120 for this he said.

Could you please tell me who you were talking about?
