Why would you make a video teaching people how to ewhore, when those same people will be directly responsible when you can't earn shit in a few days because the have all took your customers?

Honestly, you are doing a favor to some while ruining the business for others.

I'd rather that you don't do the tutorial..

It's not like he's going to release any information that hasn't already been said on these forums. He's just formulating it all in a video to make it easier for people to understand, don't be a dick.

See, you're missing the point, because:

1. You might be earning money from something else (T shirts for example)
2. You might have made it through scamming (people and pervs and skids and newbies)
3. You MIGHT (99% probably not) have made it through legit ewhoring, but the video method might be fake and made to mislead people to avoid saturating your method and taking away customers.

You may think you're smart, but you're not. You might be able to fool some skids and add them to your group (like that clown who just tried to scam a newbie), but you can't fool me.

You're the reason this forum is going to hell buddy. I hope you get caught for ewhoring. You belong in prison.

Leave ewhoring to the people who help each other out and who don't scam each other.
