I'm offering support to members who need it, I've suffered quite a lot in my time, So I'm sure I can help in most cases,

Depression

Anxiety

Post traumatic Stress Disorder

Is what I'm highly experienced in as I suffer with them

Nice guy. I'd like to talk a bit, if it's not much of a trouble. Thank you for offering this :)

I have crippling social anxiety when it comes to people I don't know, and it's mainly at school. Not sure why :/

Shit happens right?

I have a problem with making too many accounts that follow a suffix.

I can't break out of this habit. I'm too persistent. It's making my life a living hell. Having to make a new account every five minutes because the virgin broke administrators have nothing better to do than sit and ban my accounts.

Thanks :) still offering help to anyone

Very kind of you to do this. I suffered from severe depression at a time in my life, and I've overcome it through support and medication. Man it was a tough ride. If anyone suffers from depression or anxiety I'm also open to offer support.

Again, very nice gesture. Good luck OP.
