Thread: Advisory about a betting group

Want to start by saying I have nothing against Crowning hes a chill guy but his group is so bad picks, I would also like to add he is not scamming this is not a scam report just advising people.

I understand betting loses and wins sometimes but hes advertising 75% and I have 20% and under, he has lost me $160+.

He advertises on this thread:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

That he has a 75% win ratio so I paid $30 BTC to join his group and since joining hes lost me $160 and thats not stupid bets I followed all bets around $10 on each and he also has a win ratio below 20%.

Above is the bets the first one I followed was Orlando Magic v Cleveland the 2 at the top 1 won and 1 lost the one I put least stake on Won so I have technically nothing now.

I lost a lot more of the money on Bet365 but its down atm it wont let me login for some reason maybe I will update thread later with my ones on there but I am pretty sure I won 0 on there and put like 6 bets on.

I also asked for a $30 BTC refund cos his picks cleaned me of $160+ but he refused.

EDIT:

Another user commented similar views but he agrees with me on some points Crowning is chill his picks are just not as good as he advertises

How long has this been going on for? Me and him used to bet on basketball games and has a pretty solid streak going.

I can't speak for the other sports, but all the NFL picks were good. No way he could have predicted that the New England would lose to Miami and Green Bay would lose to Minnesota. Most of the picks he did was honestly the only ones he could have made. You just got unlucky.

Seems like the e-book "scammers" (always falsely advertising) are turning into "Sports Betting Groups".

This comment has nothing to do with Crowning, just referring to the one that Doodle is talking about.

Some of the sports betting groups have been rather successful I believe, but obviously the inexperienced people are trying to lure people into thinking they are "professional" at betting and starting their own group.

That's why the experienced people need to make their own groups.

I lost $20 from Crowning due to him not willing to give me the support I needed since I was new to gambling. He offered me another pick but it's not worth losing money. Again. oh well
