Thoughts

I imagine this anime will be funny, and for it being only 5 minutes an episode it should be good.

It starts airing January 8th.

this is being created by CREATURES IN PACK studio, they have created only half-cooked and "Funny For For Few Episodes" anime till now.

lets see how this one turns out.

Well an entire season is basically one episode.

So it should all be funny.

It was actually pretty fun and good; especially for some short that never heard of or expected anything out of. I'm looking forward to more episodes of it this season. 1st was 3.5 Minutes and was really entertaining

3 minute shorts, you won't lose anything by watching it. It's nice lighthearted comedy, good break from stuff like Erased.
