No, you cannot. Try selling the codes to peoplw on herw or go check out purse.io PM me if you need some help with them.

On topic:

I, as many others, am having with the conversation area of ewhoring on kik. In particular how to know if they are time wasting or not, how to lead them on, how to pull off a double dip more of the time... etc I'm not struggling heavily with ewhoring, I sometimes make $100+ a day, but I just feel I could be making more.

Thank you in advance and thank you for helping out everyone here :)

I think he starting to suspicious. If I take all the money from paypal and he chargeback, is that make negative balance on my paypal? And if I don't pay negative balance it's possible Paypal debt my linked bank account? Thanks

Yes your paypal will go into negative mate. also if you are using an eWhore's fake paypal you should not have your real bank account linked to it. that is by far crazy. I am not sure if you will go into debt in your BC but id remove it just to be safe.

Would it be better to use Paypal or Amazon? What does charging back mean?

Thanks in advance!

BITCOIN - January 9, 2016, 4:09 am

(Jan 9, 2016 04:54 AM)5n0w Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Would it be better to use Paypal or Amazon? What does charging back mean?

Thanks in advance!

They both have their ups and down. PayPal can get limited. Amazon you have to resell at 65% rate. and if your amazon gets banned they send you a check and if its not in your name you cant cash it out so its useless. I prefer PayPal but with amazon you can't charge back.

Charge back means when someone sends you money they can open a dispute/claim and get their money back. as you're eWhoring I don't know of anyway of stopping this so when you're ewhoring make sure you give the customer what you said you were selling or they will charge back. :)

Basically don't scam.

5n0w - January 9, 2016, 4:22 am

Thanks so much that has cleared it up a lot for me!

Hi, just wanted to start off by saying thank you for doing this!

My question: Since i am super new to this (this is my 3rd day of actually trying) how do you start your convo, do you get straight to the point or bait them in? And how do you get their attention on buying them, and convince them to pay? Again, thank you!
