Kinda looking for sites that accept cryptocurrency.

Why not just sell BTC for like 20% on LocalBitcoin then get more money? I doubt you'll be able to find a place selling real shit for BTC.

I don't think most of them take btc, but exchange it to normal currency. There are some solid sales going on right now.

I would also like to check out a page that accepts BTC, but PP is also an option. I am usually always buying IRL.
