Thread: [Others posting my name \[WORRIED\]](#)

Napzor - January 8, 2016, 4:12 pm

So, as the title said, some guy (i dont know who) is posting my ewhore's name on a website . Now it wouldnt be a problem but i wanna know who it is and what his/their reasons might be. They write im selling pics and videos so basically that can get me banned off of the website, which is outrageous. How can i defend, or at least understand the reasons behind it?

Cheers!

Probably trying to get you banned, or might just being advertising you, building his own rep on that site.

ohh well, isnt that good though? more customers ?

lol sorry read that wrong, i thought they were using a similar name + using your pack etc

I think he is either a customer trying to help you or a pissed off customer trying to get you banned.

I don't have this problem, but I do see faggots using my pack.

Noice - January 22, 2016, 12:33 am

I've never seen anyone do this before lol, probably just a pissed off customer.

Isn't it just free advertisement or am I missing the point?

Just change names, unless you're milking.
