Thread: [\[S\] Amazon Prime 12 Month](#)

Phaz0r - January 11, 2016, 11:28 pm

Receive all the benefits of Amazon Prime including FREE One and Two-Day Shipping for eligible purchases, unlimited streaming of movies and TV shows with Prime Instant Video, and the ability to borrow books from the Kindle Owners' Lending Library for $99 a year.

I have only 3 codes remaining.
$16 Bitcoin per code.
ONLY AMAZON.COM (no UK, FR etc)

Basically $16 for a year of free one-day shipping.
using one day shipping 3 times would normally set you back $15 alone!!!!!!
With unlimited access to amazon instant video.

EPIC DEAL!!

Elegant - January 11, 2016, 11:48 pm

Received the vouch copy and the code worked for the first few hours and the next day Amazon Prime was removed from my account and user has been avoiding my messages and isn't replacing it.

Could be carded be careful.

iNk. - January 11, 2016, 11:49 pm

I'm willing to buy a code man. PM me

howard2525 - January 11, 2016, 11:51 pm

These codes are socially engineered straight from Amazon. As far as they know they are fixing there own mistake by sending me a code and have no reason to suspect other wise, I claimed one a few months back myself and have had no problems, and won't.

Poster Boy - January 12, 2016, 1:33 am

Check your PM.I might take a code as well.

All i know is i used to purchase on amazon.com very often and im in the UK and the postage costs were the same apart from my exercise bike but...

one day and two day delivery is fulfilled (boxed, packaged and shipped) by amazon so anything sold or fulfilled by amazon will be covered by prime for europe shipping and make ur delivery cost £0 obviously if u buy from third party sellers u cant get one/2 day delivery even if u lived in the U.S because amazon dont personally ship dem items

Wirt - January 12, 2016, 9:28 am

It's a shame, I would have bought a code if if you accepted PayPal.

Also, it's free 2-day shipping not free 1-day.

You're charging an extra 36% if someone wants to pay with Paypal? I would be better off getting BTC and paying for it.

I have $13 BTC. I will give you that +$5 in Paypal for a total of $18. That's about all I can do ?

Edit: Bought a code off of him. So far so good, it activated nicely. Just awaiting him to send me his Paypal address so I can send the money to him.

In all honesty you have more suspicious rep than he does at this point. I'm not playing favorites, rather stating what I see. And I see a miscommunication that you assumed for the worst, without even giving him 24 hrs to reply and refund. And if you don't want to buy from him, fine. More codes for the rest of us I suppose.
