Thread: anyone know any unsaturated sites with HQ users??

DeadAccount123 - January 12, 2016, 7:29 am i know you can still make a profit out of these other ones but i was wondering, if anyone had an unsaturated site they are willing to help me with?

i have Btc

Just letting you know you could get a 3 day ban for this post. I recommend editing the OP and take out the SELL and SELLING part.

I have a site list

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5121736>

I literally post on every last one of them when I first wake up and then I get a shit load of traffic I don't know where most comes from all I know is what I do works.

I just use kikfinder.com and kikfriender.com and get a lot of traffic and I make profit everyday and most of these guys have paypals and amazon.

i did once buy a traffic source from a guy for 15$,
it was the shitiest kik site i ever seen.

I don't know why people think that an "unsaturated" site is magically going to make them money. There is a reason why everyone uses the same sites --THEY WORK.
