This post has been redacted.

ra1d - January 16, 2016, 1:23 pm

Looks really nice.

Good luck finding a new owner of this.

St?lk?r - January 16, 2016, 2:00 pm

Vouch for this boy he's a pretty good coder.

debug - January 16, 2016, 3:00 pm

Thanks for the unsolicited vouches.

Unknown - January 16, 2016, 3:52 pm

Vouch, he can code better than most people selling stuff in the marketplace (and is pretty good at getting people to vouch for him)

debug - January 16, 2016, 7:07 pm

Thanks dudes. Looking to get rid of this soon.

Nex+ - January 16, 2016, 7:28 pm

Was literally going to make an offer until I seen this - (Looking at you Nex.)

None the less, made me chuckle. GLWS

i a m g o n e - January 16, 2016, 7:29 pm

Well, i can't code

Can i still purchase? I like money, not coding

Dreamzje - January 17, 2016, 11:35 am

Any pictures of the actual look of the crypter?

Seems very interesting and well organised.

GLWS.

Rhez - February 7, 2016, 5:29 pm

I hope someone will buy this with a customer satisfaction in his mind.

I like the UI of this shit.

Good luck with the Sales buddy. ?

Still selling this. This is the only non-garbage .NET crypter source you will buy.

Cecilia - March 18, 2016, 8:12 pm

Still surprised this has not been sold.

???? - March 18, 2016, 8:14 pm

Why not reFUD before selling? Will sell a lot faster...

debug - June 9, 2016, 10:32 am

This project is for sale. HMU with an offer.

Wardow - June 9, 2016, 11:13 am

This is an high quality project for sure! The methods used might be a bit old, but for this price, and seeing how debug codes, it should be very clean and easy to modify,

May I ask, what's the purpose of adding anti emulation as .NET is not likely being emulated?
