Alright I decided to come back and write a little more detailed first hand experience of the service.
As well as show my results from it.

For those who don't know I was an early user of this service before Idler brought it to HF. I know Idler and his partner and was given the opportunity to use the trading service before it was offered here.

The first thing I noticed was that communication between us was almost INSTANT with responses. So, If I buy this how can help me to get a knife? Will it take alot of investment or current skins I already have?

Jordan2222 - January 19, 2016, 1:43 pm

From what I was told the bigger investment the more money you will gain, but you'll still gain profit no matter what price of your skin.

What we do is:

We make up a plan, the better package you buy, the better the profit and the more we work for you.
The better the investment skin you will give us the better results.

Then we trade for a while and BOOM, we can easily double, triple or multiple the skin you gave us depending on your package, easy!

As i said, we do not reveal our methods. The pictures are from our customers.

We can link you several customers here on Hackforums and you can go ask them yourself.

We do trading on different accounts using different tools, which are part of this, the method we are using is fully safe.

You can PM me and ask for customers profiles, so you can talk to them.

I know this sounds Sketchy, but how come i've given multiple knives and only got good results?

If that would be the case, i would have already tons of deal disputes.

Do I understand this correctly? If I have a skin worth $100 and I buy the beginner package, you will trade upto 2x the value, so around $200? This will be done in 1 week? Is this in 1 trade or multiple during the week?

I can answer this one for you.

No. Most likely +10 trades and some other stuff :)

Yes, we double your gun, the time depends on the customers we have. The VIP's will be on the top of the list.

BUT, if you buy the other packages we trade more and we will trade more.

So if somebody has a cheap ass inventory, but buy one of the higher leveled plans, would they be able to make their money back? I don't have enough money as it is to get good skins and the upper level packages. What do you suppose I do? Or, what do you recommend? And is this service going to be a gamble? Is moneyback guaranteed?

Service still around? I'm interested. :) I'm thinking about Advanced. I think I understand how this works but I could be wrong.

I give you say, a knife, you trade that up for however long the plan I choose. Once the time period for the plan is up you give me the item you traded up and up?

Is this something that we could also use to get a certain item?

Example: I get the Advanced Plan, I give you a gut knife vanilla and I tell you I want a bayonet vanilla but you may get there sooner than the 3months is up but all I wanted was the bayonet, then what happens? You trade up for skins or something O_O or you refund like 30%. Please PM me the answer to these or just reply too me ;3.

Thanks!

-UPDATE-

I can't describe how grateful I am. I feel like I owe this man a vouch. It's been a month that I bought the 'Professional' pack. I was left with nothing after an all in bet. So I bought his service. I had nothing to give him as a starting investment. So I wanted him to start with a worthless skin from his inventory. At first he was going slow but after a certain point I couldn't keep up with his earnings. It took him exactly 32 days to get from nothing to Karambit Case Hardened WW condition. I highly recommend this service. Don't hesitate dealing with Idler he knows what he's doing. He's a trading god. I've seen him pulling of ridiculous trades. Anyways good luck with sales. Will definetly deal with this guy in the future.
