Thread: Gas Money Excuses?

Cartoon Network - January 16, 2016, 5:42 pm

So if you've ewhored for more than 3 days you know that people will send money for gas money. Usually, I tell them to buy my pack and then we can continue our relationship from there, including meet-ups. After the pack is bought I just say something like I'm having family issues and can't go so don't send the money for gas yet, then I just don't ever reply to them again. But I know there has to be a way to accept money for gas and not actually meet up and also avoid any scam accusations or suspicions. Any ideas or methods you guys use to take the gas money offers?

EDIT: The victim wants to offer sex and make a porno with him for $500 dollars. Could i use this as an excuse to take the gas money and then dip? would i be off the hook because hes now talking about prostitution? or should I take the gas money and say something like im getting arrested or have to go to court for something in a few days?

Nope, I always use different one's at all costs but sometimes I don't even use any and still get through with it.

A couple of mine are:

- *Paying the rent
- *For new toys
- *For a new -Insert Random Item-

Well I live in the Netherlands , and I also use that for my e-whore. Most costumers live in the UK or USA so flying is the best option. And it's also more expensive yeah.
