Genicus - January 18, 2016, 10:39 pm

So if we have two years, we can buy like multiple and it's $100 per?

Phaz0r - January 18, 2016, 10:40 pm

(Jan 18, 2016 11:39 PM)Genicus Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) So if we have two years, we can buy like multiple and it's $100 per?

Yes that's exactly how it works but it's $99.

These codes should be $99 if not SE'd so when redeemed they can't just give you nothing because you have years of Prime (prime price is probably going to be higher in 2 years, hence this $99 replacement in place of the prime)

So you could buy 2 codes to get the prime then the 3rd code will start converting to gift card balance it sounds like.

Yes exactly. I do 3 codes for $60 or 1 code for $30.
If you purchase 3 codes for $60 and you get $100 AGC you're still purchasing at a 60% rate and got 2 years of prime for free.. after that you're on the 30% rate cos u dont require 2 years to start after that (Jan 18, 2016 11:53 PM)Jacob101 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) But then does the 4th code turn the balance into $198?

Yes, that's how numbers work

EDIT

I WAS INCORRECT YOU ONLY NEED 1 YEAR OF PRIME ON YOUR ACCOUNT
THEN THE 2ND CODE WILL BE CONVERTED TO $99!!!!

1 user has said this and it's because he applied 4 codes then just let them sit, i applied 4/5 for a purchase and ordered within an hour and my purchase was completed and my prime was never lost.. account is still in good standing the same with EVERY other customer, i offer a full refund if your account is closed or your order is cancelled
