Thread: Bought a nightclub

Who Soup - January 19, 2016, 1:35 pm

One of my old business partners knew the owner of a night club here in Hawaii called "Zanzabar". Long story short it closed down and he offered it to me to purchase for a deal I couldn't refuse.

I'm going to re model it to have a very modern look; high class. My goal is to attract high end clients as there are no high end night clubs in Hawaii. I'm hoping to launch by august as I'm going to have to re model, hire staff, etc.

Someone I used to work with was the manager of all of the Playboy night clubs in the 80s and early 2000s so I'm probably going to hire him to inventory, hire staff, etc.

Huge project but it's something I've been wanting to do for a while now; might post pics when it's remodeled. ?

Morty - January 19, 2016, 1:54 pm damn dude nice. How have you managed to save enough to purchase a night club. Also do you not have to purchase a liquor licence in your country also? as that would be the most expensive part.

Ongoing - January 19, 2016, 1:55 pm

Now this is something to brag about because it's long-term. Congratulations man, I guess all of your hard work paid off and you now own a business of your own. I hope all goes well and your new club is a huge success. ?

On the topic of staff and whatnot, I'll work for you if you can get me a place to stay. ?

Darkwin - January 19, 2016, 1:56 pm

You actually bought one, I though you give up the idea on the thread you posted previously.

Anyway, gratz, remember to manage the staffs well.

Watch out for bills going out without your knowledge, and also keep the customers credit card info safe, and dont let your staff overcharge your customers behind your back, so they get to keep the extras. These are simple things you need to lookup for.

Good luck.

Sashimi - January 19, 2016, 8:37 pm
