Psychedelia - January 19, 2016, 9:57 pm

I think I'd go with option 2, that looks badass and isn't going to break the bank.

M4 in the standard gold or whatever it's called, and maybe you mistook the $78,000 with 78,000 rupees or whatever you indians use.

Pmurphy - January 19, 2016, 9:59 pm

the merc or the m4, m4's are sick cars and those mercedes are just as nice. You really can't go wrong. If you want more speed and sporty I'd do the m4, if you want more of a combo of luxury and speed (and less gas mileage) i'd go with the mercedes.

Carbohydrates - January 19, 2016, 10:12 pm

Your car choices suck, hoho.

They're okay, but I wouldnt pay that much when you can get better looking, better spec'd ones for cheaper.

If you go with the BMW you're gonna have small cup holders!!!

XeX Menu - January 19, 2016, 10:15 pm

The M4 looks the nicest but would be better to save money so I'd say the Benz would be best. Just what I'd pick though.

AMAVI - January 19, 2016, 11:37 pm

Either option 1 or two, in most cases id choose a 4 door, but they all look really nice.

Minnesota Nice - January 19, 2016, 11:44 pm

AMG = Sledgehammer

M4 = Scalpel

The 335i isn't really in the same class as those two but good cars regardless. Not sure why you'd want a used 335i vs a new m4 though. The 340 has been out for awhile now.

Trapology - January 19, 2016, 11:46 pm

Option 2 in another color is the best

Firefly969 - January 19, 2016, 11:50 pm

I came into this thread thinking you were maybe a teen or early 20's looking for a good car for a couple grand, not 45k+. But if it was me I'd got option 1 or 3, kinda depends on your income and stuff.

Sashimi - January 19, 2016, 11:55 pm

C63 AMG. So hot. M4 is super hot too. So many rich FOBs in Vancouver driving all this shit with a Newbie sticker.

GreyGoose - January 20, 2016, 11:29 am

Okay so you don't want to spend too much money. I bought a fresh BMW last year and so far I have spent 1000 pounds worth of break pads and random shit that are somehow outside the warranty. I have however heard the Mercedes are much more reliable so I guess that's your better option because it looks better, sounds better and is faster. Though the M4 and GTR are crazy fucking fun but crazy expensive especially the GTR, the GTR is as costly to maintain as a Lamborghini.
