Thread: FIFO Workers

Hello fellow E-whores!

I discovered this about a year ago now Whilst E-whoring through dating websites. I came across a FIFO (Fly in Fly out) Miner, I built a bit of connection with him and got him to download Kik. After a bit of SE and chat he was eager to buy some pics so I sold him 10 pics for $20. He was over joyed with the pics and couldn't believe he was talking to such a beautiful girl (You know all usually shit they say). He bought another 10 pics the following night and the following night after that another 10 pics! this guy was crazy for me and I ended up exhausting my Ewhore pack within a couple of weeks and moved on to selling him faceless videos for the remainder of out time in contact. I have Targeted other FIFO workers since then and can say they are very good customers and will most likely return to buy more. I guess working 2 weeks straight with guys and being loaded with cash takes its toll on a guy.

Hope you come across guys that do FIFO work. a lot of dating websites will tell you someones profession which I have found useful for finding these guys and converting them to kik/Skype.

May your time spent E-whoring be profitable. :)
