I found a really good traffic source with consistently paying costumers.

As of now I have a few things on my mind.

- I'm getting this girl to make a paypal and she would be my paypal holder keeps 10%.

- I'm considering selling my ewhore traffic, as of now it's looking amazing.

- I have a complete unsaturated ewhore pack of my ex-gf with over 100 pictures including 10 videos I'm considering selling, but most likely wouldn't.

- I'm also planning to livestream every now and then.

Thoughts?

Kind Regards,
John Herbert

No offense, but your traffic doesn't look like a source with consistenly paying customers.

"Wanna seemore of my dock babh" <-- time waster?

"How much amount u required for one night stand???" <--- Could turn our pretty well!

"Want to fuck u" <--- Don't think it will be a buyer, but who knows

I do believe that it's great to have 50 new chats open a day, that could make you a lot of money indeed, but I won't sell your traffic (yet)! ?

P.S. My traffic for today is pretty low (used to get 150+) today only 34 new chats. Click here for proof.

Your screens only show pedos messaging you like they would if you were using any kik site buddy.

Nice, yeah there are always going to be time wasters, but that's 50 without touching any social media advertising tool, if I did that it would add up to probably 200+ because of the name.

Yer i would love to see someone ewhoring i just wanna learn how to fully do it and is it possible to pm me the site?

ciNGi? - January 22, 2016, 6:16 am

I get like 70-100 customers in about 3-5 minutes. Out of those, I usually get about 20 sales. Just gotta weed out the time wasters.

I'm not sold yet on your traffic.

I do want to see the stream to see how it works out.

I'm trying to think outside the box to find my own traffic source.
