Thread: [\[Autobuy\]\[Pre-release Price\]\$15 - Supplement Your Shit Minimum Wage Income Online](#)

Alexi - January 26, 2016, 8:37 am

Hi everyone, I intend to eventually make this a much more visually pleasing sales thread over the next couple days, but for right now I would like to just quickly introduce my eBook: Supplement Your Shit Minimum Wage Income Online.

This eBook uses what I believe to be a completely unique, never-seen-before method to generate $10 gift cards to various online and brick and mortar stores including PayPal, Amazon, and BestBuy. This is a simple method that uses a well-known website used by over six hundred thousand users to generate a small but stable income that is vastly scalable with some investment. By reinvesting the first few days of payouts it is possible to scale up to almost $30/hour. With further investing that $30/hour could become much more.

What this method is not:CPA

AdSense

Social Media

Email spam

Blackhat

This method does not require knowledge of SEO, webpage design, or even owning your own website or server. It is ready to go out of the box able to make you money.

What you need to know:How to follow instructions

How to click a link

Experience with AutoIt is recommended, but not required.

You will receive no additional software or items in the purchase of this eBook. Everything needed to begin making money is included within its pages.

As a special introduction, I am offering the full method with my complete support to five customers for $15. The expected pricing model will be:

No support: $20

Limited Support: $30

Full Support: $45

Buy early to get in on this exclusive method at a reduced price! Make up to $30/hour doing NOTHING on autopilot! Set it, forget it and watch the money roll in!

I have read through this ebook and I can honestly say I haven't seen this method before and I will be testing out the method when I get some spare time to set it all up. It looks like you can generate a decent income with this it doesn't look like this can be saturated in anyway possible long as you put the time in you can make money with this method, just like anything else if you don't work for it you won't get it. it states in the ebook that eventually it becomes autopilot so thats also a plus side. I would say purchase this method asap and get started on making money! Goodluck with sales OP?

I received a vouch copy of Supplement Your Shit Minimum Wage Income Online

Alexi's first eBook for HF boasts earnings of over $30/hour through a method that involves gift cards from a website that is indeed, well known and reputable.

Alexi has written it near flawlessly despite apologising in advance for any errors which may have been a product of 'late nights'. Many images have been provided which made it incredibly easy to follow, as well as clear headings and a simplistic font and colour scheme.

The method itself lacked creativity, derived from a more common one - though it is the unsaturated website that is provided, ongoing support and the guarantee of success that is this ebook's selling factor. Alexi also includes a means of automation which may be unknown to less experienced readers however the specific means for this operation must be provided by the reader (should be stated more clearly in the original post). This automation however, allows the reader to accelerate profits by a large margin, despite requiring a bit more effort. Even still, the method as a whole still remains incredibly easy and efficient should you decide to undergo automation. While a slight understanding of technology is required for this, Alexi reaffirms many times throughout that he is available for support.

It is not blatant plagiarism though - far from it, as far as my own knowledge of methods are concerned. Alexi promises payment to be visible in as little as a day upon conducting the method. To me this seemed a completely valid estimation. Thereafter, the method becomes much more streamlined and the reader has the choice to accelerate profits.

My final rating of this eBook is: 8/10

I wish Alexi the best of luck with sales!
