Thread: blog starting up soon

Chubs™ aka badman - January 27, 2016, 2:39 am

I'm going to start a blog soon and I need some ideas on how to grow and some tips. I will be blogging about gaming/news/computing/movies and some other stuff so basically I just need some tips on how to start.

If you are going to start a blog I recommend you pick a topic that you really like and know you won't get sick off...

Successful blogs take time to take off so you need to pick something that you know you'll stay committed to :)
