Thread: How do people snag OG names so fast?

Sahaj - January 27, 2016, 6:39 am

Like I have 2 accounts atm, I want to get good usernames on both of them. I just wait for a good one on namemc.com and change it at the exact time. But still I fail to get them every time.

Is there a trick or something?

Exodi - January 27, 2016, 6:41 am

Yes. Turbo them with a turboer. Idk how it works with minecraft, but this works with twitter and instagram minimalist - January 27, 2016, 6:41 am

Using an MC account username scraper.

I don't think that it would. But I just got a cool username, I just opened the two browser windows side by side, and clicked change username on both of them as soon as it became available. And I got it on one, so yeah, that works. ?

Madbegger - January 27, 2016, 8:54 am

People mainly use snipers to obtain usernames now. If you have a good name sniper then most OG names are a breeze with names like 'Black' you have a chance of getting. Your own sniper will cost a lot to use and there aren't really any decent public ones since mcsniper shut down. The other way can be down to luck if you get the timings right.

Noha - January 27, 2016, 10:14 pm

What sites do you use to find when they will be available?

Dragnite - January 28, 2016, 2:04 am

I just sat there and prayed I was lucky enough to snatch the name, 12/13 attempts I've done have been a success.

Semi-OG, OG or regular? Just wondering as Semi's are pretty easy to get depending on the name with OG's been really dependent on the name.

My account is somewhat known on HCF type servers, for a reason that I don't wish to explain. (It'll get off topic)

It's funny at the same time but hey, I do really like your account "Firearm".

<https://namemc.com/upcoming> - Check this for some upcoming names that are available.

<http://minecraftnames.com/> - I use this to monitor the status of the name even though you can do it on namemc, I find minecraftnames to be better for some reason.

I got mine during the name reset. You were able to upgrade with gift codes before the name change feature was released.

Well this thread went really off track... The other way of getting 'OG' names is by waiting for names to become unblacklisted as names like 'Bang' used to be blacklisted it got removed from the blacklist. Not really sure if there is a way to get certain name unblacklisted though :/

Yes I suppose, it was better to grab them when the whole name reset thing happened in my opinion though because you could get super lucky. I'm just holding onto mine until I can be bothered to sell or get them appraised.
