Why are so many people selling these all of a sudden? Why do i get the feeling there is something sketchy going on.

edit: im not accusing or sales trashing anyone im just simply observing.

Kids probably purchased them with their moms credit card.

Zexo - February 3, 2016, 6:19 pm

Not sure but probably something fishy.

Is that what he claimed? Because I'm still trying to get more information about it myself.

I just want to buy anime figurines. And I can't use Paypal anymore so EGC is the only option for me(b/c most figurine sellers only accept PP).

I'll tell you 100% that something fishy is going on. Some of my friends were bragging about having so many $500 giftcards and were going onto eBay to purchase x4 $100 bills ($400) cash bills with them, but I can't tell you as I'm not involved into any of that shit.

I don't think it is as many people claim knowing it and, hell, been offered 500$ gift cards by two different dudes, but i do smell something fishy.
