Ricky™ - February 5, 2016, 12:52 pm

Sorry, but it's Eminem. Unless you're just going off of opinion, there aren't many who have an argument against him.

?Synapse - February 5, 2016, 12:53 pm

G-Eazy & Eminem. Macklemore is also ok I guess.

Noose up, you greasy, pasty white nerd.

Miserere - February 5, 2016, 1:40 pm

Can't believe no one has just straight up said Rittz. He's great. "Ubiquitous" from Ces Cru is great, and ofc Eminem.

Didn't catch it at first, nice. He's underrated because he looks like Carrot Top and the Michelin Man had a baby.

NGMA - February 5, 2016, 1:42 pm

Oh, I totally forgot about Pouya and $outh$ide $uicide boy$

To me, Eminem wasn't my favorite; Slim Shady was.

1998-2005 was his years, once he began sobering up he changed and I wasn't too fond of it. He's still a legend, don't get me wrong but he's fallen off over the years compared to earlier in his career.

+rep - February 5, 2016, 2:19 pm

I really like Watsky. You should check him out ?

thales - February 5, 2016, 2:20 pm

Eminem hands down. One of the greatest rappers of the 21st century.

Frank Gallagher - February 7, 2016, 5:07 pm

Eyedeas. Always the eminem stan worship on HF.

Rippin™ - February 7, 2016, 5:16 pm

Eminem definitely. Eyedeas couldn't get close to making music as good as Eminem did. Eyedeas was only better at freestyling and not by a lot since Eminem is also a great freestyler.

Thin - February 7, 2016, 5:18 pm

Logic and my man Slim Jesus

Eyedeas was far more lyrical than eminem could ever hope to be by an insane margin. Granted, Em has greater Mass appeal/mainstream staying power, sure, but as far as lyrically? The thing that actually measures skill in the genre? Very few come close to Eyedeas and Eminem isn't one of them.

But does Eminem make better music you can listen to and not think a whole lot and still know what's going on? Undoubtedly. It's really all about the kind of hiphop you're into and why you're into it.

Sashimi - February 8, 2016, 2:23 am

Em. All of the other cats are just known for being white rappers.

MF D??M - February 8, 2016, 2:24 am

Eyedea is just a rapper for backpackers. Eminem has a better flow, better song content, etc. I'm obviously talking about him in his prime. Slim Shady LP - MMLP

Cadalack Ron is one of my all time favourites. In the Battlerap community and in the song writing area. He's a solid guy. He died in January this year. RIP Cadalack Ron
