Scammer/complete fucking lowlife's profile:

Shouldn't have trusted this kid, but after receiving the PM below, I have decided to make this thread rather than remove my neutral to him.

I posted a topic regarding selling 2 CSGO Knives, ST Gut Doppler and ST Flip Fade ( <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5159201>). He added me on steam on the following account ( <http://steamcommunity.com/id/xzu> ), and stated that he was Dark from HF and wanted to buy both my knives for BTC. I was hesitant due to his high amount of negs in the past, but his recent activity seemed positive and he showed me a thread where he had successfully bought several items on CSGO for BTC off seemingly reputable players ( <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5148674>). We agreed to $84 for the Gut knife and $166 for the Flip knife, shown in screenshot below. Also below is proof that it is his skype that I am talking to, as well as several scam reports with his UID.

Shown below is him confirming that he received the knife, and that he was sending BTC.

User then fabricates a story that it is his friend sending the BTC (at this point he's clearly scamming) and neglects to reply further after a point.

BTC never received. User is a fucking moron and does not deserve to have 200 rep on these forums. I know I am an idiot for dealing with someone with so many negs, but just assumed that $84 isn't worth 3k+ posts, 200rep etc. User must be a fucking peasant, needing the $80 for McDonalds to live.

Type his UID to see how many scams this user is related to Imfao

Rid him of these forums please.

Seems like he wanted to scam me too.

Hope you get your Money or the Knife back dude.

Man change your rep on him and put this scam report on the rep. Because the rules says "If you call someone a scammer in rep put the scam report into it" Otherwise you can get repkilled and mostly get your account closed.

See this as a helping hand.

He's in Brotherhood? Lmao. Obviously shouldn't be risking that position.

Watch out peeps, apparently he's been trying to scam others.

What does the 'brotherhood' mean?

Removed until its sorted out.

& Just because someone is in a group does not make them trusted.

As Omni always says, "never trust anyone online".

When dealing with BTC it's always best to use a middle man.

Could you please explain what Brotherhood is?

Look up his UID, should obviously not be in anything considered exclusive
