Thread: Sonex's Affiliate Marketing Twist is A COPY?

Ties - February 6, 2016, 3:34 am

Community Alert!

Sonex's New eBook is a SCAM!

What Happened?

Well I am kinda new in the forum, One of my friend here, Informed me about hackforums, About how cool, tech enthusiasts community it is.

While Browsing HackForums, I came to know about Sonex, an REPUTED eBook Seller.

His New eBook "Affiliate Marketing Twist" was a kind of must read for me, So me and my friend contributed for this and bought it for both of us.

Now I am quite into Internet Marketing, And Have Read a Lot of Warrior Products.

But Then, I Discovered.....

One of the products on Warrior Forums, also available on wsodownloads.info,
Which was Fast Cash Blueprint 2.0 which I already bought and read, WAS TOTALLY COPIED BY SONEX, EVEN IMAGES!

PROOF:

Note : the pics are oddly resized, which wouldn't have happened if it was real

Like Mr. Kewl said, sonex should proof if is telling the true. I think it's not correct staff removing proof from the original post since there was no personal info such as real name, phone number, address, payment account, just pages of the ebook, this isn't even leak since sonex leaked it himself as he stated before this wasn't harmful it was an alert very legit of same .pdf file with one footer in blank and other with sonex name. I thought that staff does not involve in scam reports or community reports? Besides Omniscient if he feels like need to finish something just close the thread. Not to remove the proofs.

I suspect someone in staff removed that info despite it being proof to cover for Sonex since he used to be a mod I hear.

Obviously it's to cover for Sonex, it revealed personal information they have to protect that.

Also, Sonex already posted his replies and proof in a thread so why do people expect him to post it again here?

Also OP has some explaining of his own to do also Okay then, still Sonex is super shady. He's refused to honor refunds (which has been promised) and has been verbally disrespectful and rude to those who have requested of it. We were literally told that we're ignored". Hence our scam reports open.

I do not meant to speculate it, but maybe a mistake. There was no personal information being shown which is only what matters to remove like the note on his thread. Not ebook pages like was this.if it were personal info would be need to be removed

Do not try to redirect traffic into your thread to gain more prestige. You could very well add that thread into a post in this thread. And no one cares about the fake or real blogs you're saying, people here just want to receive a PM from you on WF to confirm your identity in that forum. If you see my earlier posts, you'd say that Sonex is my arch enemy i.e because I honestly thought that the screenshot OP provided was of WF forum and with a sales thread which it wasn't it, but it was of a blog which had this content.

I checked WF forum where OP says he bought it from, there's no mention Nate selling this eBook I just want to see where he got it from.

Also don't consider me as a "Mentor" posting here, I'm just a regular member like you and me trying to get both side of the story.

Do understand, not once OP has linked to WF, where he claimed he bought it from. #2, I, you don't have the Sonex's copy of the eBook so we can't compare the screenshot as well.

Again I'd say, I just want to know the truth. Sorry for not understanding. I have logged again in WF t check it too. I am trying to find the sale thread...but sonex have admitted what tiers wrote by using multiple sellers names to confuse leakers (which i dont understand why he said it if he doesnt sell on WF)

What if they copied Sonex and not vice versa though?

I didn't understand his reasoning behind changing user names. If a product is worth leaking no one will care what user name it came from, it'll be leaked.

I'm not saying OP is at fault, he's providing half truth as well.

he is dumb as a door noob, if he thought that he could keep doing this making out he was some E-book king ...

The issue is that users here are starting to get suspicious of YOU, as there's still questions people are asking, but you haven't answered yet. Although Sonex has done the same shit as you in that regard, he's still an established member of the forum, so basically the burden of proof is on you.

The reason I even have an issue with Sonex himself is already proven shitty customer service and disrespect towards his own customers who question his products, and ask for a refund despite having done nothing to warrant being ignored and denied one.

I don't know how to feel about this. Sonex has been like a father to me and treated me the same way he treats his other children. because of this, I have to give him the benefit of the doubt.

I think if guru gathers and make a thread about working unique methods from good seller would be really nice.

I heard some sellers, pay a small amount for fake vouches, others ask vouches from their friends.
And so on....

Proofs can be faked, vouches as well. You should be extremely cautious, especially on HF

No. He just keeps selling, earning more money from his customers and provides 0 support or help. According to ALL customers, if you ask for help or have questions = you get -rep and flame via PM. He rarely responds to customers, deal disputes or even PMs.

sonex is confirmed scammer and liar. (sadly) why doesnt everyone just chargeback then?

if tos is not met thats a reasonable solution either that or someone might just limit his paypal account ?

People already chargeback, others asked for refund and others just wait for his PM response or some kind of help and yet.. no action from the "professional" Insert sarcasm sonex because he can't deal with it. Nobody is earning money from his lying c/p methods, all legit customers of his claimed to made $0 total. Only his friends claim to make tons of money. I am sure he have withdrawn all his money from the moment this community report is opened, changed all his real info on PP and doesn't care anymore. Truth hurts and Justice need to be served.
