Sorry but no. I have already done this for couple of my friends.

I have included video for proof.

SearchOptimizer - February 6, 2016, 9:47 am

I can vouch for StuffSneaks exploit, it works as described!

PM'd you please, kindly revert, thanks!

locaman234 - February 7, 2016, 3:49 pm

I've read comments and saw the vough, but the deal interaction method of "PM and wait 24hours" doesn't seem encouraging. If you could provide a Jabber/Skype/etc, which would make the back and forte smooth and fast, that would be GREAT! Cheers

Most of the times I am on within the day but its just precautionary that if due to different timezones, it may be night at my place.

Usually I will complete the work within hour or so max if I am online.

I have PMed you my Skype. Can not post directly due to security reasons.

Thank you for your interest!

I've seen this working myself and can personally vouch, and considering the price, this is one hell of a steal.

Good luck with sales OP!

This macro exploit is one of the cheapest on HF and doesn't lose quality at that price point, thanks for all the help StuffSneak, Good luck with more sales!

pota4love - February 8, 2016, 2:23 am

Is this macro and do the victim need to enable anything or is this silent open and get effected

Same question am about to ask, cos i have seen a lot of enable macros request and that is not silent at all. So when you say silent then it must not tell the user to enable macros or anything.

StuffSneak - February 8, 2016, 5:49 am

All questions have been answered. Thank you for your interest.
