Quote:The Academy City on the water, Rikka (otherwise known as Asterisk) is the world's largest stage for the integrated battle entertainment, "Star Wars Festival." The young boys and girls of the "Starpulse Generation" belonging to the six academies made their wishes with Shining Armaments in their hands, vying for supremacy—Amagiri Ayato is one of them.

Ayato arrived at Rikka at the invitation of the Student Council President of the Seidoukan Academy, Claudia, and right after that he incurred the wrath of the "Petalblaze Witch" Julis, and ended up having to duel her.

The greatest academy battle entertainment, begins here!

Surprised to see that there was no discussion thread for it yet. Personally, it's one of my favorite of 2015, plus the Season 2 will be aired in Spring of this year, so we have something to look forward to.

On a side note... is it me or does Yabuki look like he's hiding the fact that he's very powerful or something? I have a feeling that he's not your typical easygoing MC bestfriend.

It was alright, Rakudai was much better though

Thought I made a thread on this, but I guess not. This was a good anime, very similar to Rakudai Kishi

This one is on my watch list but I've neglected to watch it thus far because only 12 episodes. This is one of those moments where I'm glad that I neglected to watch it. Now I can watch both seasons later on.

easygoing MC bestfriend. I think he's just holding his power since he's looking for his sister and doesn't want to let them know that he's the brother of her sister ? and is it me or the president of the school knows him?

Yabuki is the guy with the Newspaper club, not the MC ? And yes, it appears that the school prez knows the MC.

Oh wow, sorry about that since Hajime no Ippo is the anime that I'm finishing at this moment, and yeah on the earlier episode where they captured the one who's targeting Julis, Claudia and Yabuki are like camping and the atmosphere on that time is intense so what I'm thinking is Yabuki is sort of boss in season 2 or something i dont know ?
