Thread: Is there money to be made RATing?

Dayy - February 6, 2016, 8:34 pm

I'm looking to get into RATing, a bit for shits and giggles, but also (hopefully) to make some money.

If you can steal cc info and steam items etc both scenarios you can get easily screwed over, and taking steam items is a pain in the ass with the mobile authenticator now.

BTC mining is an option, but you'd need a thousand slaves to make a mere $15 a day haha

Any other options, there is definite potential in making money doing this, and i'm sure they don't have to be super bh, or easily detected.

All your advice is appreciated.
Thanks, and happy earnings HF

You can try to jack a few accounts, maybe hope for a few OGs or stats.

TheUnknownPlague - February 6, 2016, 8:37 pm

the easiest ways of making money are very black hat and you listed most of them also i wouldn't recommend trying those methods

Dayy - February 6, 2016, 8:37 pm

Definitely agreed, but i'm looking for something less blackhat and detectable. I mean... you literally have access to someone else's pc, there is 100% potential in making money with this.

Possibly ref links ? Or social media mentions likes etc?

DingusMonster - February 6, 2016, 8:41 pm

Don't mine btc with slaves, not worth it. Mine script like litecoin or dogecoin. Much more profitable

Dayy - February 6, 2016, 8:42 pm

how much more profitable would you estimate ?

Essence - February 6, 2016, 8:42 pm

Do not list anything on HF that has anything to do with not following Paypals rules.

You should probably take that out of the thread before you get banned..

Edited the OP, thank you for letting me know.

Any further advice is also much appreciated :) happy earnings hf

Yes there is indeed money to be made using RATs.

Dayy - February 6, 2016, 10:42 pm

well duh haha

i'm asking what options are available, preferable the least bh while still yielding good profit. Not something insane, just maybe $50 a day or a couple hundred a week

alpa aseo - February 6, 2016, 10:43 pm

The only methods that are actually worth it will land you a long jail sentence.

?Jinx - February 6, 2016, 11:29 pm

Some people want twitch viewers or followers. Some want subscribers. Let your mind think twitter followers and stuff.

Just make sure you know him more before you do stuff like this.

I know I left out cryptocurrency but mostly everyone knows about it, so I skipped it.

This.

You could easily make like $500/daily with like 500 bots in r.a.t but the ways are too blackhat . You would get tracked down and be in jail like for year/or so for 5k$

CoLDarkness - February 7, 2016, 3:35 am

The methods worth it won't last you a jail sentence if you are not a stupid fuck.

Anything to do with "stealing" is going to get you fucked over suggest you stay away.

Essentially what i want to stay away from haha! But even if you had 20 slaves there should be potential to monetize or make profit. Perhaps something along the lines of ewhoring?

If you RATED old ewhore customers, maybe something could come of that ?

Still looking for further options and methods, advice is much appreciated!

What's the point of trying to make them pay you if you RATED them? You can just send a payment to yourself... lmao

No dude. You should already take in precaution that accessing and having full control over someone else's computer whom you have no permission from is completely illegal and a crime that can be charged under federal law.

haha haven't started RATING yet, seems to be kinda pointless if it's too risky to earn anything from.

Thanks for all the help guys

well you got alot of options:

- 1: Get their paypal accounts and use their socks to log in and then buy BTC from localbitcoins or w/e
- 2: Get their CC details and look into their emails and bank account maybe you can get their drivers licence or w/e and get their SSN number and then register at westernunion and make transfers to yourself (or to someone else and he will pay you back in BTC). Also look for moneygram accounts.
- 3: If you got ING accounts (dutch bank site) just hook me up, i found a way to clone phone number where they get their 2FA code on.

It is less risky if you hide your tracks and use a no log VPN.
