Thread: Logics love and support

syrah's bitch - February 7, 2016, 12:08 am

After personally dealing with abusive parents and cyclothymic disorder I understand the need for support, dm's or quality banter. If any member needs to talk because of problems they are facing then you are more than welcome to message me. I'll try to active as much as possible to provide this support. Thank you

At what age were you diagnosed with cyclothymic?
