What games do you play?: Black Ops 3, NBA 2k16, Star Wars Battlefront, and I pre-ordered The Division. I don't have Rainbow 6 yet, but I plan on getting it soon.

Do you have any competitive experience?: Not on the Playstation 4. I used to run LAN tournaments with my friends on the PS3 a couple years ago though.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events?: As much as is needed. I don't have a job or anything so I'm mostly free.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector: An active group that enjoys gaming and socializing.

Why should you be accepted?: I should be accepted because I enjoy gaming and socializing with other people. If you ever want to game, just hit me up.

Nice post time by the way.

What games do you play? : Black Ops 3 mainly, some other like GTA and rocket league

Do you have any competitive experience? :Yes, I have won a few tournaments before on CoD, e.g. won GB tourney.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : I can play whenever although I stopped playing, but willing to play again.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : A group of chilled people to play games with :).

Why should you be accepted? : Because I try to be as nice as possible and I am decent at CoD in my opinion.

What games do you play?: Bloodborne, Until Dawn, Destiny, Fallout 4, The Elder Scrolls: Online

Do you have any competitive experience?: Mainly in Destiny, that's about it.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events?: I am most active during the week, about any time during the day I can play.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector: A good, healthy, non-toxic community to play some vidya with.

Why should you be accepted?: I'm a non-toxic player, easy to get along with, and love to game. I won't be inactive and I'll be sure to engage in the community.

Age : (Please be aware, I don't care about your age in general, I only require you to act like a mature person) 15.

What games do you play? : CoD Series, Destiny, NBA2k16, Rainbow 6.

Do you have any competitive experience? : I have played BO2, MW3, Ghosts, and AW competitively and I had enjoyed the experience and I plan to continue.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : I am usually gaming 24/7. When I come home from school I am usually gaming. I dedicate time into gaming and I am starting to get comfortable with other games besides CoD. In other words, if I am not doing school work or sleeping, I am gaming.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : A group to socialize with about gaming that I can hang with and play different types of games that I usually don't play.

Why should you be accepted? I would be a good fit to the group because I love gaming and whenever I can I just play games because it is a big part of my life. I would love to be apart of the community you have started up! :)

What games do you play? BO3, Pay Day, Star Wars Battle front, Battlefield, Destiny, F1, Fifa, GTA, active community as a whole, not just in the gaming sector. But through the gaming sector, I'd like to be able to get on Cod, need a few guys to pub stomp with, head over to HF, and have people ready to play almost instantaneously. I think a gaming sector needs to be based on both group-wide events, as well as casual "hey, anyone trying to play_____ in like half an hour" encounters. I would hope you take an equal amount of PS4 and Xbox gamers because I want to be able to thrive as much as the other guy. Like I said, I'm always available to play with buddies and so I'd hope I'd be placed in a group with likeminded individuals.

Why should you be accepted? Okay, most important part in my opinion. There is a litany of reasons I feel I should be given a spot. First off, I have a lot of group experience. This may seem like a bad thing "he has no time for our group, he's all tied up with other stuff." Yes and no. I have a lot going on in the world of Hack Forums, but this by no means inhibits my ability to be a more than active and contributing member. I can fulfill any and all that is asked of me, which is something I believe really fits for a gaming group. I'm a member of Fusion, along with Sox, Illuminati, and a few others. I really really enjoy what that group is doing and I think Brotherhood stands to be nothing short. I am here when you need me, as long as I'm needed. I can go above and beyond, and if I'm given a chance to prove myself in The Brotherhood, I know for a fact you won't be disappointed.

As always, any questions or concerns please feel free to PM to me. Have a nice day guys, and good luck to all other applicants.

What games do you play, and how often do you play them:

All CoDs - Been playing League Play on BO2 recently to get ready for BO3.

Resident Evil - I love survival horror games so I usually end up playing these a lot.

Final Fantasy - Rarely, maybe when I'm bored.

GTA V - When my friends bug me to play.

Do you have any competitive experience, if so what: I played UMG for Ghosts and AW and I also played on a MLG team for Tom Clancy's RSV2 when that was still on the circuit ages ago.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights, assignments and whatnot else might be required of you on a weekly basis: As much as needed. I am in college so unexpected things do come up.

What do you expect of the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector: Some people that are at least half way decent at CoD.

What can you bring to the Brotherhood XBOX Gaming Sector: I'm an extremely active member and play Xbox pretty much everyday. If you're looking to ever compete competitively at a game, I feel like I would be a good fit.

Why should you be accepted? What makes you different to other applicants?: I've been in BH Gaming like three or four times now.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Only local smash competitions.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : Free friday nights, Saturday afternoons and nights, weeknights.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : Activity. People available to play games with as I am always asking my other groups members to play.

Why should you be accepted? :Im very active. I am always willing to play casual games or competitions, I am also very organised so I can help host tournaments. I love talking and having a good time and am a pretty good partner in most games.

What games do you play? : Madden 15/16, Black Ops 3, Fallout 4, NHL 15, Destiny.

Do you have any competitive experience? : During Modern Warfare 2 and Black Ops 2 I was into competitive gaming on Gamebattles and other competitive tournament sites. Won around $400 if I remember correctly, singles and team tourneys. Not really into it now as my job and looking to start my own company/business takes up a majority of my time.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : If my schedule allows me too and I know in advance when these gaming nights will be, I will be able to dedicate a decent amount of time to both matters.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : I expect to meet new people online and look to make friendships within the group and dominate the online scene with The Brotherhood Gamers. ?

Why should you be accepted? : I'm passionate about gaming and have been since I was a young boy, started with the Sega Genesis. ?

Short, sweet, and to the point.

Hi,

We previously had a PC gaming sector, but it didn't go the way we wanted, none of the members played together. So we disbanded it, and decided we will not try it again anytime soon.

Cheers!

Yep. That's why we're asking what games ppl play.

We're going to match and invite ppl based on that.

What games do you play? : COD(any), NBA 2Kx, Madden 16, NHL x, Killer Instinct, EDIT: Fallout 4

Do you have any competitive experience? : Back on COD: Ghosts I used to do Gamebattles with several clans, I once reached #17 on the leaderboards in Search and Destroy legitimately.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : I go out quite often, but if I know an event is coming up, I will stay home to dedicate my time to the group. On weekdays I'm on every night for about 2-3 hours. Weekends expect to see me online anywhere from 1-6 hours depending on plans for the day.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : Good people to play games with and enjoy my time with

Why should you be accepted? I should be accepted because I am skilled at the games I play. Rarely have I met someone who can beat me in NBA. I dedicate my time to every group I'm in, and The Brotherhood will be no different. If accepted, I will be very active in the SF and in any events I'm expected to partake in.

What games do you play? :

[+]FPS

[+]Survival

[+]Sports

Do you have any competitive experience? :

[+] Yes 3 years of semi competitive: Today's UMG / GB's.

Games: MW2, MW3, BO1 and Halo 3 / Reach.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? :

[+]I'm either always on HF or Xbox, I do attend school and also have a job but that doesn't really affect my ability to play during group events or just to shoot the shit while playing. I'm on for 5-6 hours a day atleast which can be spread out over different times of the day for different tournaments or just for different time zones.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector :

[+]A chill place to hang, filled with fellow gamers that enjoy playing different genres and work as a team.

Why should you be accepted?:

[+]No reason more then any other, but just love to game and already know TJ and Jimmy and play with them all the time. I like to work as a team and to meet new people to game with on xbox would be awesome. I'm mature and can be known to take games seriously which I think just ignites my competitive nature.

Age : 17 turning 18 in September.

What games do you play? : BO3, Fallout 4, 2K16, The elder scrolls, and a multitude of other games all from various genres.

Do you have any competitive experience? : I didn't really ever get into competitive gaming. (This was not due to lack of skill or anything of the sort, just was never really keen on competitive gaming without a certain group of friends whom I could compete with and work with regularly, I hope to find this group of friends here in The Brotherhood.)

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : On the weekends, I can easily go all night and if there is any community event in the group, I can make time out of my schedule to present, as a group is a commitment. On the weekdays, I am busy with school and getting ready for college, (despite this being my last year I have yet to give into the popular trend known as "senioritis") but I can surely at least give 3-4 hours daily late at night for the sake of the group, and my fellow group brethren should I be accepted.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : I hope to find players whom surpass even myself, and would like to better my abilities along with them, not only do I wish to contribute my own expertise, but I would like to learn and get better from those who are also in the group.

Why should you be accepted? : I know I am quite new in comparison to many of you guys, but I believe I am fully capable of being a contributing member to this group. I ensure quality in every single thing I do, and this group is no different. As I aforementioned, it is a commitment, and by submitting this application I fully understand I will have to not only dedicate myself to the group as a whole, but to each of the individual members of the group itself.

There is no public blacklist.

Ultimately, the only person that controls who not to add is me.

When a leader wants to add someone to a group they run it by me first.

As of right now, you are in the clear.

Also, this thread is mainly for applications, no more asking if your on the "blacklist" or not.

What games do you play? :

From a young age, I've tested and played a variety of different games from many genres. However, currently, I do narrow my game selection on the Playstation 4, to only a few popular titles which I enjoy playing with friends. The game that I'm probably most active on is Call of Duty Black Ops 3, as I love playing Zombies/MultiPlayer with my friends. I actually also started playing MLG GameBattles recently, as my friend thought I was pretty good at the game, so he let me join his team.

Another game I'm pretty active on is Grand Theft Auto 5. To be honest, there isn't really an explanation to why I love this game so much, it is what it is. There are endless amount's of fun on here, and it's really enjoyable when you have friends playing with you online.

When I'm feeling a bit cheeky, I jump on FIFA 16 and may play some Pro Clubs with a few of my friends for a good bit of fun. I also do play a lot of my friends online at FIFA, but I prefer playing FIFA when I have friends come over, or if I visit their houses.

I've mentioned a few multiplayer games that I've played, but I haven't mention singleplayer games. One of my favourite titles at the moment is Just Cause 3, which I've been playing a lot recently. Apart from the glitches, the game is fantastic, and can give you hours of fun on your own.

A final game which I play occasionally with my friends as well is Star Wars Battlefront. I mainly played this after being hyped up about the new Star Wars Movie, but since around Mid January, I haven't really been playing much.

Those are the current games which I am most active on, and to be honest, I haven't really built much of a collection for PS4 Games yet, since I bought it about 4 months ago after selling my XBOX ONE. However I am looking to build my collection and experience a lot of new games, and I think The Brotherhood has excellent members who could potentially help me with this.

Do you have any competitive experience? :

Yes, I do. On the PS4, as I mentioned above, I don't have that much competitive experience, since I have only purchased the console a few months back, but even then, I still play a few MLG Gamebattles games with my friends.

However, aside from the PS4, I used to love playing competitively on all Call of Duty titles up until BO2, after which I didn't touch COD till BO3 now on PS4.

Back to the point, I did used to love playing competitive on BO2, MW3 and MW2, and for some time was part of minor clans, who used to match up against other clans and have private matches with. Other than COD, I don't really know any other games to play competitive in, but again, this is something The Brotherhood could potentially help me with.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? :

I would like to be fully honest with this, and say that I will be very dedicated to gaming nights and other community events. I see The Brotherhood as a group which is full of the highest of quality members, and I see you guys almost as a family of such. Whenever an event or anything of such sort is hosted, I will be one of the first there, since I love participating in such events, as it brings members of the groups closer, and you get to have a lot of fun together.

Of course if there are times where I am unable to take part, such as if there is a serious in real life issue, I will let any leader know if this were to happen, and give them well in advance notice, but other than this, I will be ready to go at any time.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector :

When I see the Brotherhood Userbar, I see the userbar of a selective group/family of individuals. Throughout my time here on HackForums, I have seen the group as being on of the best here, as it's never ever let it's name or pride down, by accepting buyins or anything like that.

What I expect from the PS4 Gaming Sector in the Brotherhood is many individuals, whom are active, and also nice people in general. I think for a sector of a group to be active, individuals whom have a passion for gaming, and individuals whom are willing to put a lot of time and effort are needed.

I would expect all members of the PS4 Gaming Sector to be friendly towards all members on HackForums, and especially members who are in The Brotherhood, as they are representing the pride of a high quality usergroup.

Why should you be accepted?

Why should I be accepted? Well, I could go on for hours saying why I would "like" to be accepted, but I understand that The Brotherhood want's to keep their name up to a high standard, and so you guys will be looking for reasons to accept me.

Well firstly, I have always been an enthusiastic gamer, since a very young age. I believe I was about 5 Years Old, when I was given a SEGA controller by my older cousin, and I was playing Sonic. I remember from that day on, my life had changed, I had a new hobby, which was one of the best things to do.

After beginning to game as a child on old consoles such as the SEGA and Nintendo 64, I progressed on to my first proper games console in 2009, the XBOX 360. This console changed my outlook on gaming, as for the first time, I was able to play a game with another person in the world, whilst they weren't sitting next to me. At the time, it was a fascinating thing to me, and I was hooked.

Fast forwarding all the brilliant years of having a lot of fun on my XBOX 360, until two years ago when I purchased an XBOX ONE. I had a good amount of fun with friends on that, but realised the PS4 was better, so I sold it, and bought a PS4 a few months ago.

Since then, I've been playing many games with friends and family, and have been having a really enjoyable experience. Well why is this all important to explain why I should be accepted in to The Brotherhood?

Well, I've explained how games have changed my life as a person, and if you can't already tell, I have a great passion for video games. Whenever I have free time, if I'm not out with friends, or doing something else, I'm playing Video Games.

I believe that The Brotherhood could use someone such as myself, someone who is a normal guy who can interact with other users, someone who likes to make new friends and have fun, and someone who is willing to help anyone out, whatever the case. I also believe that if The Brotherhood accepted me, it would motivate me to change how I am as a user on HF. I would increase how high quality of a member I am on the forum, I would be motivated to host things such as giveaways in the name of the group, to increase recognition etc.

Overall, I believe that I would be a great person to be accepted in to The Brotherhood, as from the way all members from the group describe it, it fits my personality.

Thank you for allowing me to apply for this group, and thank you for your time.

Age : :) You know me

What games do you play? : I have too many games, BO3 (+ Season Pass), Star Wars Battlefront, BF4, FIFA, GTA, AW (+ Season Pass), Ark: Survival etc.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Not on the Xbox One, competitive gaming is entertaining to watch though.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : When I'm not smoking Gorilla Glue, I'm either playing games on my xbox one, or watching Netflix and shit. So I'm basically online all the time.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : Some people to play games with (and hopefully finish all the damn BO3 Easter Eggs with) (cough@red)

Why should you be accepted? : Because I like to smoke pot and play video games and when I'm sober, I still like to play video games. Plus I'm active AF and your subforum will flourish.

& More

Do you have any competitive experience? :

Yes, for the past year I've been in several team competitions.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community-wide events? :At least 3 times a week added with weekends.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : Real discussions about the games we play and personal opinions on certain genres and atleast friendly environment.

Why should you be accepted? :

Been playing with PlayStation since PS3 first came out and never changed since then, I also play on Steam for PC gaming and tournaments on my free time and I can probably beat half the people in here in call of duty with ease.

We will have a PC sector in 1-2 months after we get the PlayStation and xBox sectors running 100%.

It's like running a business, you don't launch 100 products at once, you launch 1 or 2, wait until their doing really well, then look into starting something new.

What games do you play? : I know it sounds cliché to say everything, but honestly everything. I love a good platforming indie game but also love competition with games like Halo 5, Black Ops 3, Smite, Fallout 4 to name the few big ones.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Some, I have done Gamebattles back on Black Ops 2 and also was highly ranked in Black Ops 2 league play. I have also been getting into competitive Smite.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : As much as is needed. I've honestly been looking for an active gaming group/section so I'd love to be to participate in as many events as possible and maybe host some of my own.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : I'm honestly just hoping for an active, friendly section. The HF gaming section is bleak and I need something more intense. Also tutorials, people to play with, and just general excitement over a games story or a soon to be released game would be satisfying enough for me.

Why should you be accepted? Not to be cocky but there are a solid amount of reasons to accept me which I'll explain! First off, I won Class clown in high school ;) So as an actual person and not just a gamer I'd be a fun person to game with. I also, like stated above, play a shit load of games. Meaning if someone posts a thread geeking over an uncommon game, chances are I've had some sort of experience with the game and can talk with them. Also playing all the games I have, I could start a guide for gamerscore. Something like a Price/difficulty ratio when getting gamerscore for those gamers in the group who care about that. Also I enter a lot of those Beta Trials even if I don't like the game so I'd always be willing to give those away to other group members who are actually interested in the game.

I could blab forever about why I should be accepted but I'm going to end it there. In all honesty, this is probably the only HackForums group where I would fit in and have a big part in enhancing the group altogether. Thanks in Advance!

What games do you play? : I play a ton of games, there is no way in hell i would be able to list them all. I will list a few of the main ones that i play Online. BO3, Fifa 16, GTA. You know most of the main ones. I play FallOut 4, Far Cry 4. The Witcher 3. These are just a few of the games that are coming to the top of my head right now. Edit: Ton of great new games coming out right now, i would love to get to play these games with some HF members.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Aside of little games with IRL friends, nope. I hope to change that soon.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : Weekdays i can dedicate a solid 3-4 hours. Weekends depend. If i have a test or something that i need to put time to i will play the same amount as i do on a weekday. You probably will not expect any online time from me on Friday until really late in the night.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : A group of people who i can play games with. A place to improve my gaming experience and much more. I get to meet HF members and compete. [Prove why i am the best on Fifa]

A place to make new friends. Usually what i would expect from a gaming clan.

Why should you be accepted? : Dedication, activeness and humor are probably the top 3 things i can bring to this group. When i say humor. I don't mean immature jokes at the wrong times but obviously i will throw in a joke to bring a laugh. I would love to have a great experience and want to bring a great experience to other members.

What games do you play? : Black Ops 3, NHL 16, GTA V, Rainbow Six Siege, and Star Wars Battlefront, Fallout 4.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Not really no.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : 2-4 hours on weekdays due to school. How long I want on weekends.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : Events with people apart of the gaming sector and maybe just chilling and playing with people in the sector.

Why should you be accepted? : I try to be really active and I would like to participate in as many events that I can that are planned.

Thanks for reading my application if you need any other information let me know.

Thanks.

What games do you play? :

Mainly COD. I play multiplayer and zombies. Also Fifa, 2k, MLB The Show. I play some other single player games as well.

Do you have any competitive experience? :

I've never been too competitive. I mainly play to have fun. Of course I get mad just like anyone else at times but in the end it's just a game haha.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? :

More than enough. I work all day from home so I'm free literally all day and night :)

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector :

I expect to meet some great new people and hopefully make some new friends on PSN.

Why should you be accepted? :

I'm a member of a few groups. One of them is gaming related as well and I've always been a HQ member of each. I think I would be a great addition to The Brotherhood.

What games do you play? : Any call of duty, Gears of War, and GTA V.

Do you have any competitive experience? : I used to have a GB for world at war, and gears of war 2

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : I play around 8 hours a day, so i'd be able to dedicate to gaming events/nights no problem.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : Meet a group of likeminded individuals who can sit down and enjoy a game with me, regardless if it's bashing heads in on gears of war, pubstomping on call of duty, or conversing about TBA games.

Why should you be accepted? I'm a mature and intelligent individual who gets along with most people. I'm outgoing, talkative, and active in groups that I show interest in. I'd interact daily with the group, make new friends, and share information on releases, news, games, etc.

What games do you play? : FIFA 16, GTA V, BO3. A lot of PC games also.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Played FIFA competitively and BO3. Virgin Media Gaming Quarter-finalist.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : 4-6 hours, 6-8 depending on event.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : A group of guys that are looking to play competitively and have fun and roast some mofo's while doing it.

Why should you be accepted? Don't take games too seriously in some senses and have a natural feel for games, outgoing chap so no worries on awkwardness.

EDIT: Noticed that Xbox Section is closed, I would like to be considered for the PC group since I am more active there thank you. Please let me know when this opens up.
