Xeswift - February 11, 2016, 6:33 pm

Hey there! I'm posting here for the Ub3r prize. I joined hackforums with an intent of learning as much as I can about things so that I can explain and help those in need/Wanting to learn how to do things. Ub3r would be a really nice thing to have, But then again I do not entirely need it :) I love being support and helping people who are having trouble with crypters, xbox modifications, or even setting up VPN's/RATs. I can understand that I'm probably not a HQ Member, nor do I seem worthy to win any sort of prize, But I would really enjoy winning ub3r. I wish the best of luck to everyone posting! :)
