Thread: Scammed by kingfly55 UID= 2562297

joel147258 - February 11, 2016, 9:51 am

Bought $500 in Amazon gift codes from user

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2562297> after I paid, he said it would take 5 minutes max to deliver codes. It's been 13 hours since. Messaged him via Skype multiple times and no response at all

Original thread which is of course locked now <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5164346>

DEAL WITH EXTREME CAUTION I'm out $300 now

Myusernameiscool - February 11, 2016, 9:52 am

Why didn't you use a middleman?

joel147258 - February 11, 2016, 9:54 am

Needed the Agc and plain stupidity I guess, user seemed legit

Stashyy - February 11, 2016, 9:55 am

He did not seem legit. What kind of "legit" were you seeing you moron. ???

Myusernameiscool - February 11, 2016, 9:55 am

According to his rep he refused to go first or middleman with another trusted member. Should've checked his rep man.

?Shady - February 11, 2016, 9:55 am

As a user above mentioned you should of used a MM or at least did this deal in small increments, sorry for your loss OP.

You here are the scammer, and you obviously somehow changed the skype conversation with some third-party software or used photoshop to manipulate the photos

Show proof you've sent the codes then.. Because if he calls his bank up your 10/10 fucked.. Its obvious you didn't have the AGC and were trying to pull an scam. Why is your thread locked after that then?

kingfly55 - February 11, 2016, 11:47 am

He requested i send the codes through hackforums, hemust have deleted the skype messages of it or something.

I recently cleared my inbox because it was full so i do not have the message. If op does not show the PM then he obviously deleted it.

There is nothing i can do now to prove i sent the codes other than say it. It was a stupid move for me to delete the PM's.

LOl suure..

Op if you need help charge backing just follow this:

- 1) Call paypal
- 2) Tell them you were buying some items from someone
- 3) Tell them the person didn't want the payment as goods and services because he didn't want to pay the fees.
- 4) Tell them he insisted that you pay him friends & family to avoid that and he scammed you

IC3 won't fuck anybody up for $300. They'll brush it off unless it was $100k+

OP no offense and all, but you been here long enough to know better not to deal with him or use a middle man. This is on you mate.

As for the scammer, you could of really planned you escape plan much better. The fact of the matter that you accepted PayPal as the payment of choice, no only shows that you're an idiot, but someone who cannot con for his life. So you pretty much just wasted a somewhat of a good account.

OP just call up Paypal and your bank tell them the whole story and put the screenshots you have left as proof in chronological order. You will get your moneyback in no time since Paypal mainly sides with the buyer 90% of the time

joel147258 - February 11, 2016, 8:00 pm
