Oddissee - February 13, 2016, 12:46 pm

Yay! :) I'm almost 18 in about 4 months, but I'm trying to establish more autopilot income, Im planning to average $100 a day by the time I turn 18 which is in July :)

I'm super excited to try to hit that small goal haha!

Anyhow, I just got my like 5th playstation ($ from eWhoring) and I'm selling it locally now. I'm debating if I should sell this or kinda'v enjoy it for myself :/

But nahh Im saving up $ for real estate so I guess I gotta do what I gotta do :)

Proof of about 2k-3k:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QIKkN8VbiKc>

I have more in my paypal, but for those who think you can't make $ online, you're wrong.

Ik 4k doesnt sound like much but to me it's alot. and Income will only increase, Ik people on here make like 2k a day but hey, I'm pretty satisfied!

I'm making $ from CPA/Clickbank and i'm happy for that as well!

Thanks HF for the Amazing opportunity to make some $ online!

People claim to make 2k a day, mostly from selling the ebooks that claim it. Few people on here actually make that much.

These are solid earnings, as long as your happy with what you're making, then it's worth it.

Create value if not no one will buy from you. It has to be an unknown method and it has to be working relatively well.

But the real question is do any e-books work/ work well?

Nope :)

Yours could be an exception

That's not true, most of them aren't very good but there are definitely some that will make you a few dollars.

(usually is just as efficient to take an old public method and find a way to use it successfully by means of tweaking small details or otherwise)
