Thread: Scammed \$115 by Nex+ | UID: 2194640

Dizzi - February 13, 2016, 4:26 pm

Let me start by saying that this has been the worst deal I have ever come across in my 4+ years on hf throughout hundreds of deals. I have never scammed anyone and I have never had such a pathetic problem with a member, who is by far the most difficult member I have ever dealt with.

Nex+ scammed me $115 PayPal for a false mentorship program. He "guarantees" on his mentorship thread that you will make your money back. Also keep in mind, his advice to make money was to buy an ebook and sell it, very shady.

Skype Conversation

Funny thing is neither Light nor myself, being one of the first members to sign up for the program, have made any money. He barely responds to any of our messages on skype. Ironically, I actually lost money, as he advised me to buy one of the shittiest ebooks I have ever read in my life. I trusted him and now I'm $200 down for nothing.

Light's Response

After the neglect, I asked him for a refund weeks ago, and now suddenly I asked him nicely for a refund again since I haven't made any money and he would only offer a 50% refund, though he did nothing for me, except show me a color chart, saying that red draws the buyer's eye, lol, no really? I learned color theory in middle school, and he made me waste money on a worthless ebook. I highly do not recommend dealing with him while he is clearly in it for himself and was never really trying to help anyone.

dude lol hes obv a scammer

Power8 - February 13, 2016, 4:28 pm

I died at the "Color Chart" part haha

O/T Sorry for your loss OP, Hopefully Nex with resolve this smoothly...

minimalist - February 13, 2016, 4:29 pm

That sucks, but you won't be getting this resolved. Refer to his user title to find out why.

Cammy - February 13, 2016, 4:30 pm

Ace Of Jesus - February 13, 2016, 4:30 pm

That's what happens with highly repped quality users... But yeah, hope this get resolved.

Deany - February 13, 2016, 4:31 pm

Color chart? Are we in the 3rd grade now

Nex+ - February 13, 2016, 7:54 pm

I tried to make multiple appointments with OP but he always ignores me when I try to setup a time with everything. I already started some things with OP and invested my own time + money with him and offered him 50% refund for that reason. I think it is more then fair.

Your responses are clear you did not give a fuck as you wouldnt give me a time or date. Not my issue.

Orgy - February 13, 2016, 8:19 pm

Yeah it looks like Nex was trying to set up a time for you guys to talk and every time he'd ask when was good for you, you'd just ignore him for a few days

Sahaj - February 13, 2016, 8:21 pm

Don't think that Nex would scam anyone, he's one of the most HQ members that I've seen on HF. Plus, he clearly was trying to fix a time, don't think that your case or report is strong enough OP.

Maybe you guys can talk this through.

Nex+ - February 13, 2016, 8:24 pm

My offer still stands, I will offer you 50% as you wasted my time multiple times and my money to help you. That comes with a cost.

Did you read my thread? I'm not the only member who bought the mentorship who he is disregarding. It goes both ways and I tried to set up times but he's never on during consistent times.

And no Nex, I didn't waste any of your money, you only wasted mine. And you are scamming me by not refunding me the full amount. You guaranteed on your mentorship that I would make money but that clearly wasn't the case for either me or Light.

All I'm asking for is my money back. I'll take the loss on the shitty ebook you recommended for me, btw, did you even read it? You claim you've made over $100k so what is $100 to you you greedy bastard. You honestly can't say you tried to help me. I'm not sure what kind of market you work in, but a color chart and bad advice is worthless.

My claims are statistical facts that I can backup. You are the one who came to me, I did not reach out to you. I clearly tried making appointments with you to mentor you as I showed on the first page of this thread and you blew me off, not just once, but multiple times. Shame on you. I'm done replying to this thread as everyone sees you are a pissed off drug addict who needs 100 bucks to snort his cocaine off a strippers ass cheek.

Shots Fired!

Grabbing my popcorn for this one!

For real though, it does seem like Nex has a point there.

If he tried to set up appointments with you, and you blew it off that's on your end.

How can you say that this mentorship was horrible when clearly you lacked dedication? O.o?

Except that you can clearly read from the skype ss that I am trying to set up times just as much as he is, but I mostly initiate each conversation. And again, if you read the thread you can see I'm not the only member who he disregarded.

If you really are as busy as you say, why are you trying to be mentored if you don't have a consistent schedule, need to remember other people have things to do as well and can't fit your schedule either. All I'm saying is it looks as though you kinda just gave up and just want your money back, ignoring when he asked for a time, maybe you changed your mind and didn't even want it any more.

Your initiating conversation is a reply that does not even justify my questions when to mentor you. Not even to mention you are a week late to reply to a simple question that I ask.

It does not matter what he does to other members, if Light has an issue, he can create a scam report.

This is gonna be a he said, she said kind of thing. If I were you, take the 50%, it's still better than nothing since obviously Nex+ is not gonna refund you the whole thing.

Hope you learnt your lesson that most mentorships (lol) are just scams since their "methods" no longer generate much cash hence they open up such services to milk users.

As you are the leader of a global conglomerate, I whole-heartedly back your decision.

Acel - February 22, 2016, 5:38 pm

This seems really un-professional

OP paid $115 for a mentoring service

"I will guarantee you will make your money back while working with myself" - Nex+

^ You guaranteed you would make OP his money back but there is no proof that you have, you would still need to offer this service but if OP is not cooperating with you at the end of your 2 month deadline I believe then is when you shouldn't offer a refund

But at this point you haven't given him the service and he should be able to get a full refund as your guarantee states that you would make him the promised amount of $115

Unless you have given him information which he could use to make that $115 then the refund should not be given as he has received half the service and it's his choice whether or not he wants to proceed with it

J?son - February 22, 2016, 5:42 pm

I would have charged back too.

Why people still deal with this kid is beyond me.

Did you read my update? He's been ignoring me for weeks now. He no longer responds to my messages both on Skype and HF. I've attempted to work with him over 8 times now, all with a given day and time that I'm available.

I'm fairly sure this entire situation, given the chargeback an his failure to respond, is beyond his point of assistance/willingness to work with you.

The only reason I chargedbacked was because he was ignoring my messages, and made me waste $200 for nothing. If you read the thread, it's not just me who he is hurting. Out of hundreds of deals here and 5+ years on this site, never have I dealt with such a scammer. Literally have had no problems dealing here before this.

I completely understand and wholeheartedly agree with you.

I can't say I wouldn't have performed a chargeback myself.

I was never stating that you're in the wrong,
merely just bringing to reality that regardless if you're in the right or the wrong,
I don't think he'll be returning any of the funds.
Good luck with the chargeback.

wow this is unbelievable. i've dealt with nex for a while, and he has made me over 1000$ in cash although i lost 300$ i wont tell how but even at one point when i offered hmi 150$ for the last time i wanted to make money from this method, it didnt work out, Nex told me this wasnt a sure fly method, anyone in his position would've just scammed my 150$ and i wouldn't even mind letting nex keep it but instead he insisted i got my money back. he's great guy, FYI these transactions were done in 2015, but after reading this i feel unsecure trying to deal with him again
