AUTO BUY BTC ONLY: <http://aiobuy.net/buy/3670>

Net Monitor is a unique keylogger with a variety of different features. We strive to provide the best product possible to our customers and if you purchase today you can receive lifetime updates free of charge!

Net Monitor Features:

[+] Hidden Startup - Net Monitor will automatically start logging your machines information once it starts up.

[+] Icon Changer - The stubs icon can be changed via any .ICO file.

[+] Stub Information - You can change information pertaining to the Net Monitor stub.

[+] Download & Execute - Net Monitor will download and execute any file through a URL. You can choose to run the file silently if you wish.

[+] Fake Error Messages - If you want your machine to display an error upon executing the stub, you can do so.

[+] Persistence - To ensure stability accross all your machines, the Net Monitor process will be difficult to kill.

[+] Disable CMD & Task Manager - You can choose to disable CMD & Task Manager upon execution.

[+] Extensive Information - System information, keystrokes, and clipboard information of your machine is included within each log.

[+] Melt - This function makes the Net Monitor stub disappear upon execution while silently running in the background.

[+] Process Killer - If you decide to use this feature, Net Monitor will kill any process that you choose upon execution.

[+] Web Page Visitor - As soon as the file is executed, you can have your machine open its default web browser to your selected URL. This can also be done silently.

[+] Password Recovery - If you ever forget a password, Net Monitor can recover Chrome web browser vaults, Opera vaults, and FileZilla passwords.

[+] Highlight Words - You can choose to highlight selected words in each log to easily find the information you need.

[+] Auto Setup - Net Monitor automatically detects your SMTP settings to ensure everything is beginner-friendly.

Net Monitor is always getting new features added. If you purchase today, you can receive lifetime updates for free!

Haha, wow, just saw this thread and thought I was seeing double.

I wonder if Crypt is going to junk his thread yet?

Update has been pushed, all clients were lost in process. If you have proof you have bought this and want the new version please contact me. I am selling ownership to this, so once it sells I won't be able to add anyone back to it. Closing this thread due to the fact ownership is being sold as well.

Thank you for everyones business. It was pleasure selling this over the last couple months off and on.
