Thread: [\[Autobuy\] Get a Fiverr gig for just \$1 \[Limited\]](#)

NonViolence - February 15, 2016, 6:03 am

DO YOU WANT A FIVERR GIG FOR JUST ONE DOLLAR?

You should just use autobuy button and purchase an already made Fiverr account loaded with 1 free gig on it.

You just need to login to the account and there will be this button on the account.

Click on it and you can choose between 1000s of free gigs!

Just select a category and find the gig you want

(Note: You can't choose between all gigs on Fiverr, there are some selected ones but there are alot to choose from!)

When you have found the gig you want and you click on it then you can order it for free from the account

When you place your order you don't need to add payment method or anything, your order is free!

Still trying to figure what the catch is?

What I sell is Fiverr accounts with free gigs on them which you can claim.

There are 1000s of gigs that normally costs $ 5 on fiverr.com but with one of my accounts you can get one gig for free.

I bought it for $40 on another forum. However I use it with a special twist so the fiverr accounts wont get cancelled so a a free gig is guaranteed everytime :)

It is public lol, its been around for months. I've never had one cancelled either and I just used a trash email and vpn for each one. You should try to get your $40 back haha. Good luck with sales tho
