SelenaSquad

What is this about?

SelenaSquad is a group that has that one thing in common, we all adore and cherish Selena Bae Gomez. Every night we sit besides our bed and pray that one day Selena will be us.....

Legit though, this group is basically a lounge group in which we talk about whatever comes to mind. Here you can connect with other HF members and have our own little community of Selena Gomez lovers. I have purged the group as I took a break from everything including HF for about 2 or so weeks. I am now back and ready to revamp and re-release the respected unofficial Group. Our recruitment thread will be posted in a separate thread.

I agree she's hot, but I don't like her more then that. Good luck with your group though!
