Thread: Hackforums Closes Down!

????s? - February 19, 2016, 6:51 pm

What if you woke up one morning and HackForums was gone?

What would your reaction be?

The reason I ask is because I rarely come around anymore, and when I do come on here, it gives me a good feeling that HF is still standing strong even after all the fuckery it's been through. Been a long time coming and HF was definitely a great help the last 7 years. Learned a fucking lot and made some money. :)

Deany - February 19, 2016, 6:51 pm

probably find another forum or kill myself

Elijah Mikaelson - February 19, 2016, 6:52 pm

I would continue living my life, Since HF isn't that really important, If you compare it to other things.

You have a thousand post in 1 month.

minimalist - February 19, 2016, 6:56 pm

I'd be pretty sad. CE takes 0 effort and I make a good amount from it every run :p

OT: I would probably just kinda hate myself for wasting money on l33t and ub3r other than that I would be fine.

Griev?us - February 19, 2016, 6:57 pm

Continue on with my daily life and maybe seek a girlfriend.

Ace Of Jesus - February 19, 2016, 6:57 pm

It wont just go down like that, it's omni business, he wont let that happend. I'd be really supried, but a bit shocked.

By the way, your title is so misleading...

Phobix - February 19, 2016, 6:57 pm

This. You always know what to say

Retribute - February 19, 2016, 7:02 pm

Well, I would feel sad at first because I've spent a huge amount of my time on this site. It's grown on me.

But at the same time there's really no one here that's still active that I would miss, so it wouldn't be long before I moved on with my life.

Social Engineer - February 19, 2016, 7:05 pm

Considering the amount of skill people have on this forum, I'd be pretty disappointed. You can come on here and find someone to do pretty much anything.

Melees - February 19, 2016, 7:05 pm

Tbh not on as much anyway so wouldn't give much of a $hit.

?LIXI? - February 19, 2016, 8:50 pm

The first thing I would say to myself is "did I get IP rekt"? Then I would check is if the website is down for everybody or just me. After that, I just move on. I've got better things to do.

abash5219 - February 19, 2016, 9:00 pm

I'm new to Hackforums so not much. Maybe just throw a couple of hammers at some kids. Just minor concussions though.

Not really, the place could close tomorrow but the domain currently does not expire until September 27, 2022 anyway. That's 6 years, and even then the owners could renew it.
