I just finished watching Hotaru No Mori e and it was really lovely and sad. A great film to watch with your girlfriend.

Have you guys seen it? What do you think about it? Any other similar magical movies you guys know?

Here is an amazing AMV based on the film:

Warning: it has spoilers, but I suggest you watch it.

Akira is a great magical movie :^)

But really I was looking into watching that movie , thanks for the recommendation.

I think there was a movie called Wolf Children or something like that which is really heartwarming.

I liked this movie a lot. But I feel like being so short, some people can't even get attached to the couple. So I feel like the ending isn't as meaning full or hit as hard.

I actually seen that AMV when it was shared a while back. Totally forgot about the movie though. Need to watch it sometime.
